OFFICERS

JERRY REINSORF Chairman

Fulfilling a dream that began as a young baseball fan growing up in Brooklyn, N.Y. during the 1930s and 1940s, Jerry Reinsdorf accepted the Commissioner's Trophy from Bud Selig on October 26, 2005, after the Chicago White Sox swept their way to the team's first World Series championship since 1917.

Reinsdorf's two professional sports teams – the White Sox and Chicago Bulls of the NBA – now have delivered seven World Championship titles to the city of Chicago and its sports fans.

The 2005 White Sox, Reinsdorf's 25th club since his partnership assumed ownership in 1981, joined the 1927 New York Yankees as only the second team in Major League Baseball history to lead its division wire-to-wire and sweep the World Series. The 2005 Sox, managed by Ozzie Guillen, won 99 games to claim the American League Central division title and captured an amazing 11 of 12 postseason contests in winning the franchise's third World Series title (1906, 1917 and 2005).

The championship was the first by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years and was celebrated by a ticker-tape parade, attended by nearly 2 million Chicagoans, that ran from U.S. Cellular Field through many of the city's neighborhoods and finished in downtown Chicago. At the rally, first baseman Paul Konerko presented Reinsdorf with the ball from the final out of Game 4 of the World Series.

Reinsdorf begins his 27th season as chairman of the White Sox in 2007, the second-longest ownership tenure in franchise history behind club founder Charles Comiskey (1901-31) and the second-longest as a controlling owner among the 30 Major League clubs. During Reinsdorf's 26 seasons as chairman of the White Sox, the team has captured American League division championships four times (1983, 1993, 2000 and 2005). The Sox, who also were in first place at the conclusion of the 1994 strike-shortened season, have gone 2,121-1,964 (.519) during his 26-year tenure.

In 2006, the White Sox won 90 games in consecutive seasons for only the fifth time in franchise history and first since 1963-65. After drawing a franchise-record 2.95 million fans in 2006, 18 of the club's top 20 single-season attendance totals have come during Reinsdorf's ownership tenure.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been involved in Major League Baseball initiatives at an industry-wide level. He continues as a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council, served as chairman of baseball's Ownership Committee and was a member of the board of directors of the Player Relations Committee, Inc.

Reinsdorf serves as co-chairman of the Equal Opportunity Committee. Since the formation and implementation of the Diverse Business Partners (DBP) Program in 1998, Major League Baseball and its clubs have purchased hundreds of millions of dollars in goods and services from minority and women-owned businesses, and the White Sox annually rank among baseball's leaders in the DBP program.

Reinsdorf remains a member of the Legislative, Labor Policy, Long-Range Labor Planning and Relocation committees. As chairman of the Relocation Committee, Reinsdorf was involved in Major League Baseball's decision to return baseball to Washington, D.C. in 2005. He was a member of the American League Presidential Search Committee, the Expansion Committee, which designated the last two expansion teams, and the Strategic Planning Committee. Reinsdorf is a member of the board of MLB Properties and MLB Enterprises, as well as MLB Advanced Media, L.P., the interactive media company of Major League Baseball, responsible for creating and maintaining the Web sites of each club and MLB.com.

During his career in professional sports, Reinsdorf has been responsible for the construction of two new sports facilities in Chicago, Comiskey Park (1991), now U.S. Cellular Field, and the United Center (1994). Over the past seven offseasons (2000-2006), Reinsdorf, the White Sox and the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority have undertaken dramatic offseason renovations to U.S. Cellular Field with the goal of improving the ballpark experience for White Sox fans.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls, the team has captured six World Championships (1991-93, '96-98). In addition to initiating the building of new Comiskey Park, Reinsdorf spearheaded construction of two major facilities for the Bulls. The United Center, home for the Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, opened for the 1994-95 season, and the Bulls began using the Sheri L. Berto Center, their state-of-the-art training facility, in 1992.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises have donated millions of dollars to causes in the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and CharitaBulls. Twice during his tenure, Chicago White Sox Charities has made $1 million donations to the Chicago Park District. Chicago White Sox Charities also provides annual ongoing support to programs such as Special Olympics and the Inner City Little League. In addition to rebuilding all of the city's baseball diamonds and backstops during the 1990s, White Sox Charities recently made a $1 million contribution to build four ballfields—one for baseball, one for girls' softball, one for Little League baseball and one Miracle Field—in Mt. Greenwood Park on Chicago's southwest side. The Miracle Field, which is a field specifically designed for children with special needs, is one of four fields of its kind built in the last year in the Chicago area with funds from Chicago White Sox Charities. Under Reinsdorf, the goal of community initiatives for both the Chicago White Sox and Chicago Bulls is to improve the quality of life for Chicagoans of all ages, races and genders.

Reinsdorf has played a critical role in the development of the west side area surrounding the United Center and was responsible for introducing an innovative reading program to the Chicago Public Schools. Through the new Chicago Bulls/Chicago White Sox Training Academy, which opened in 2001, and outreach efforts such as White Sox Training Centers and Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools, Reinsdorf's franchises promote sports to thousands of youth each year while instilling a love of the game in future fans.

Reinsdorf was the 1997 recipient of the Order of Lincoln Award, and his many contributions to the community have been recognized by such organizations as Keshet, the Interfaith Organizing Project, the American Academy of Achievement, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Trial Lawyers Club of Chicago, the Chicago Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame, the National Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame and the Chicago Sports Hall of Fame. In addition, he is the recipient of the Chicago Park District's 1990 Chicagoan of the Year Award, the 1992 PUSH Bridgebuilder Award, the National Italian-American Friendship Award, Northwestern University's Award of Merit, the U.S. Air Force American Spirit Award and a honorary degree in humane letters from Illinois College. Reinsdorf was awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor in 1993 and the 1997 Mayor's Medal of Honor.

In 1998, he was honored with the Guardian of Children Award from the Jewish Council for Youth Services. As chairman of the White Sox, he was instrumental in initiating Chicago White Sox Charities, the arm of the baseball organization that raises funds for cancer research, children's and senior programs. Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities has twice conferred its Hallmark Award to Reinsdorf in recognition of his efforts.

In addition to his sports interests, Reinsdorf is an attorney, a certified public accountant, a specialist in real estate securities, a registered mortgage underwriter and a certified review appraiser. In December 1987, Reinsdorf completed employment as chairman of the board of a real estate investment firm he co-founded in the early 1970s and sold to American Express. Currently, he is a partner in Bojer Financial, Ltd., a real estate investment company. He is a former member of the board of directors of Shearson Lehman Brothers, Inc., the Northwestern University Law School Alumni Association, LaSalle Bank, Equity Office Properties and numerous other corporations and charities. He is presently a trustee of Northwestern University.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have four children and seven grandchildren.

EDDIE EINHORN

Vice Chairman

Eddie Einhorn begins his 17th year as vice chairman of the Chicago White Sox in 2007, continuing his long-term involvement with chairman Jerry Reinsdorf while also devoting time to his multiple sports and television interests. Prior to becoming vice chairman, Einhorn, who also serves on the board of directors of the Chicago Bulls, served as the White Sox president and chief operating officer for 10 years.

During his 26-year career in baseball, Einhorn has been a member of Major League Baseball's Schedule Format Committee, the Professional Baseball Association Committee, Player Development Committee and was a member of the Television Committee from 1992-95. He was one of the key architects of The Baseball Network, Major League Baseball's joint broadcasting venture. Einhorn's successful Cooperstown Baseball World, a sports camp complex for kids in Oneonta, N.Y., is in its eighth summer in 2007.

Recognized as the architect of baseball's first billion dollar-plus television contract, Einhorn was instrumental in negotiating Major League Baseball's 1990 deal with CBS-TV and ESPN. In 1989, Einhorn was appointed television consultant to the United States Olympic Committee and was responsible for a 200-hour Olympic television package that debuted in 1990. He currently is the television consultant for the United States Figure Skating Association and the International Skating Union, the governing bodies for figure skating throughout the world. In that capacity, he helped engineer the first amateur/professional sanctioned skating competitions. In early 2007, Einhorn completed an agreement between Major League Baseball Advanced Media and the Ice Network to create and maintain the website icenetnetwork.com.

Prior to joining law school classmate Jerry Reinsdorf in 1981 to head the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox, Einhorn was the executive producer of the "CBS Sports Spectacular." At CBS, he was responsible for over 100 hours of programming per year and won an Emmy Award for "The Gossamer Albatross, Flight of Imagination," in 1980.

Einhorn was the founder and chairman of TVS Television Network, a leader of sports programming in the 1970s that celebrated its 40th anniversary in 2005. The TVS telecast of the Houston-UCLA game from the Astrodome in 1968 is credited for the growth in popularity of college basketball on television.

Einhorn has written a book, available in bookstores nationally, on the evolution of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. The book, entitled "How March Became Madness," traces Einhorn's early days of televising college basketball in the 1960s to the present through interviews with over 50 people responsible for the game's growth, including John Wooden, Elvin Hayes, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Digger Phelps and Dick Enberg.

Einhorn has received many awards and honors over the years, most notably being honored recently by his hometown of Paterson, N.J. with the Mayor's Award for civic contribution. He currently serves on the board of the Kidney and Urology Foundation, a project close to his heart.

Einhorn was born on January 3, 1936 in Paterson, N.J. and holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Einhorn and his wife, Ann, have two children: Jennifer, who is manager of special events for Major League Baseball, and Jeff, who lives in Los Angeles, produced "Winning Ugly: Twenty Years Later," a retrospective DVD about the 1983 American League West Champion White Sox, and works in the entertainment industry.

Roland Hemond Award

In 2003, Jerry Reinsdorf and the Chicago White Sox created the Roland Hemond Award to honor those who better the lives of others through extraordinary personal sacrifice. The 2006 recipient was White Sox season ticket holder Ryan Devlin of Tinley Park, a life-long fan who sold his World Series tickets to finance his own trip to New Orleans to provide supplies for hurricane relief. Devlin was featured on an episode of Oprah, along with Mark Buehrle and Scott Podestnik, who met the surprised fan. The first recipient was Dr. Julian Lopez, who donated a kidney to White Sox vice chairman Eddie Einhorn in 2002 after having been his doctor and knowing of his struggles to receive a donated kidney. The second award went to Bill and Bonnie Cartwright, who took in a high-school age foster child, helped him succeed in school, sports and life and become the first member of his family to graduate from high school. The 2005 recipients were Sean Carey and Danny O'Hearn of Oak Lawn, two nine-year-old boys who spend their summers hosting a 'Lemon-aid' stand to raise money for patients at Advocate Hope Children's Hospital. "This award serves as a tribute to Roland and was created to celebrate his lifetime commitment and selfless service to the community," said Reinsdorf. "He has dedicated himself for more than half a century to bettering the lives of those around him. He is a true inspiration. Each year, this award acknowledges others who have taken this same spirit to heart."

HOWARD PIZER
Executive Vice President

Howard Pizer has primary responsibility for the business and administrative operations of the World Champion Chicago White Sox, as well as continuing his oversight of the club's legal matters and governmental relations. The longtime business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group.

During his 26-year tenure with the White Sox, Pizer has supervised the franchise's hosting of two Major League All-Star Games (1983 and 2003), the team's four postseason appearances (1983, 1993, 2000 and 2005), and the 2005 World Series, the first won by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to create new Comiskey Park, now U.S. Cellular Field. He then utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, the state-of-the-art facility which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks season. Pizer also played a key role in negotiating the White Sox partnership with U.S. Cellular and remains the team's chief liaison with the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA), the state agency that serves as owner of U.S. Cellular Field.

Pizer is responsible for the overall relationship between Illinois Sportservice, the White Sox concessionaire, and Levy Restaurants in conjunction with the operation of The Stadium Club and Diamond Suites. Beginning in 1999, Pizer has spearheaded the club's ongoing efforts to constantly improve the ballpark experience for fans attending a game at U.S. Cellular Field.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the board of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities; Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics; and Near West Side Development Corp., which is working to spur affordable housing and economic development on Chicago's near west side. The Chicago native also has participated in the club's support of community efforts to continue the on-going initiatives to develop the Wentworth Gardens and Bronzeville areas near U.S. Cellular Field. Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities.

Born on October 23, 1941, in Chicago, Ill., Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline and Rachel; and three grandchildren.

KEN WILLIAMS
Senior Vice President/General Manager

Ken Williams celebrated his fifth season as general manager of the Chicago White Sox in 2005 by winning the third World Series title in the franchise's history and the club's first since 1917.

Williams, who concluded his sixth season leading the Sox in 2006, became the 11th general manager in Chicago White Sox history on October 24, 2000. The White Sox have gone 522-450 (.537) with one World Series Championship, one division title, three second-place finishes and two third-place finishes under Williams. His .537 winning percentage ranks as the best in club history for a general manager and sixth-best in the American League during his tenure.

The 2006 White Sox posted a 90-72 record and third-place finish in the AL Central, 6.0 games behind Minnesota and 5.0 behind Detroit. The Sox won 90 or more games in back-to-back seasons for just the fifth time in franchise history and first time since 1963-65. Chicago also recorded 90-plus wins in consecutive seasons in 1954-55 and 1905-06. The 189 combined wins in 2005-06 are the White Sox highest total in back-to-back campaigns since winning 193 in 1964-65. Only five teams in baseball owned a better record than Chicago in 2006. The White Sox went 57-31 in the first half of the season and entered the break in second place in the AL Central, 2.0 games behind Detroit. The Sox still led the AL wild card race as late as September 2 and were within 0.5 game of the Twins in the wild card race as late as September 9.

The 2005 World Champion White Sox, built around pitching, defense and timely power, became just the second team in major-league history to lead its division wire-to-wire and go on to sweep the World Series in four games. The other was the 1927 New York Yankees. The Sox were 11-1 in postseason play, winning their final eight games.

Williams hired former White Sox All-Star shortstop and former teammate Ozzie Guillen as the club's 37th manager on November 3, 2003. Guillen, who played for the Sox from 1985-97, is the first Venezuelan to manage a major league baseball team and bring home a World Series title. Under Guillen and Williams, the White Sox major-league coaching staff features several members who starred for the team as players, including Harold Baines, Joey Cora and Greg Walker.

Since becoming general manager of the Sox, Williams annually has made aggressive moves impacting the major-league roster. Prior to this season, he acquired RHP David Aardsma (November 16), RHP Gavin Floyd (December 6), LHP Andrew Sisco (December 16), LHP John Danks and RHP Nick Masset (both December 23) in trades, while signing free agents C Toby Hall (December 17) and OF Darin Erstad (January 25) to add even more depth to the club. In 2006, Williams added DH Jim Thome (Phillies), INF/OF Rob Mackowiak (Pirates) and RHP Javier Vazquez (Diamondbacks) to the White Sox via trades. Williams acquired LHP Matt Thornton (Seattle) by trade on March 20, while bolstering the 2006 team during the season by obtaining RHP David Riske (Boston, June 15), C Sandy Alomar Jr. (Los Angeles-NL, July 23) and RHP Mike MacDougal (Kansas City, July 24).

Prior to 2005, the White Sox signed five free agents – OF Jermaine Dye, RHP Dustin Hermanson, RHP Orlando Hernandez, Japanese INF Tadahito Iguchi and C A.J. Pierzynski – and each played a key role in helping the team to the World Series title. The Sox also acquired OF Scott Podsednik and RHP Luis Vizcaino in a December 13 trade with the Brewers. In 2004, Williams signed RHP Shingo Takatsu, Japan's all-time saves leader, who was the first Japanese player for the White Sox, while in 2003, he signed free agent RHP Esteban Loaiza, who went on to win 21 games and started the 2003 All-Star Game at U.S. Cellular Field.

During his tenure, Williams has acquired 148 players in 51 trades involving the major-league roster, adding notables such as Roberto Alomar (2003-04), Bartolo Colon (2003), Jose Contreras (2004-present), Carl Everett (2003-05), Freddy Garcia (2004-06), Rob Mackowiak (2006-present), Jim Thome (2006-present), Javier Vazquez (2006-present) and David Wells (2001). He claimed right-hander Bobby Jenks (2005-present) off waivers, has signed Sandy Alomar Jr. (2001-04), Jose Canseco (2001), Tom Gordon (2003) and Kenny Lofton (2002) as free agents, and signed current Sox players Mark Buehrle, Jon Garland, Paul Konerko, Pierzynski and Juan Uribe to multiyear contracts. In Williams' seven seasons as general manager, the Sox farm system has developed third basemen Joe Crede and Josh Fields and outfielders Brian Anderson, Jerry Owens, Aaron Rowand and Ryan Sweeney.

Williams is the first African-American general manager in Chicago sports history and the third in major-league history, following Bill Lucas (Atlanta, 1979) and Bob Watson (Houston, 1994-95/Yankees, 1996-97). From 2001-03, Williams and Jerry Manuel formed the first African-American general manager/manager tandem in major-league history. He was listed by Black Enterprise as one of the "Most Powerful Blacks in Sports" for 2005.

Williams served as the club's director of minor league operations from 1995-96 and was promoted to vice president of player development for four additional seasons (1997-2000). Under his direction, the White Sox were named 2000 Organization of the Year by Baseball America, USA Today and Howe SportsData.

Williams has spent 26 seasons in professional baseball and 23 with the White Sox in a variety of capacities, including player, scout and special assistant to the chairman. He served as the director of minor league operations/special assistant to the chairman from November 1995 until becoming vice president of player development in 1997. He joined the club in November 1992 as a scout, specializing in the inner cities, and was named special assistant to chairman Jerry Reinsdorf in 1994. He also worked at SportsChannel in 1995 as a studio analyst on Sox telecasts.

Active in the organization's community outreach programs, Williams played a key part in the White Sox introducing the Direct Instruction program to the Chicago Public Schools system. He is on the board of Athletes Against Drugs.

A former outfielder with the White Sox (1986-88), Detroit (1989-90), Toronto (1990-91) and Montreal (1991), Williams appeared in 451 career major-league games. He was a lifetime .218 hitter (252-1,157) with 27 home runs and 119 RBI. His best season came as a rookie in 1987, when he hit .281 with 11 home runs and 50 RBI for the White Sox. Williams originally was selected by the Sox in the third round of the June 1982 free agent draft.

Born on April 6, 1964, in Berkeley, Calif., Williams attended Stanford University, where he played football. Williams and his wife, Jessica, have five children: Temeka, Dedrick, Ken Jr., Kyle and Tyler.

TIM BUZARD

Senior Vice President, Administration

As senior vice president of administration for the Chicago White Sox, Tim Buzard is responsible for the club's accounting, ticket office, human resources, data processing and communications departments. He also is very active in maintaining the club's on-going relationship with Major League Baseball Advanced Media (MLBAM).

Buzard, who was promoted to senior vice president in 2004, oversees the Chicago Bulls/Chicago White Sox Training Academy, located in Lisle, Ill. The state-of-the-art facility, which opened in 2001, offers professional baseball, softball and basketball instruction to thousands of kids of all ages, from beginners to professional athletes. Plans for 2007 include the opening of new satellite locations in LaGrange, Ill., and Griffith, Ind.

Buzard is beginning his 26th season with the White Sox. After joining the club in 1981, he served as controller for five years, as vice president of finance for 12 and as vice president of administration and finance for six. Buzard's initial priority with the White Sox was developing a detailed budget and long-term accounting plan. He initiated the automation of the accounting department and assisted in an organization-wide computerization project. Buzard also has initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Buzard spent much of the 1993 season as a member of Major League Baseball's Chief Financial Officers' Committee studying revenue sharing and has played a major role in the implementation of baseball's new revenue-sharing agreement. Buzard has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign, the development of a human resources department with the White Sox and is responsible for the organization's integrated approach to communications. He currently is a member of the Major League Baseball non-uniformed Personnel Pension Plan Committee and the Subscribers' Advisory Committee of the Major League Baseball Assurance Exchange Society, MLB's captive insurance company.

Buzard graduated in 1978 from the University of Illinois with a degree in accounting and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox. Buzard was born on September 13, 1955, in Evanston, Ill. He and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline and Kevin. The family resides in Riverwoods, Ill.

TERRY SAVARISE

Senior Vice President, Stadium Operations

As senior vice president of stadium operations, Terry Savarise is directly responsible for all aspects of the operation of U.S. Cellular Field, including the over 2,000 employees who staff the ballpark on game days.

Savarise, who was promoted to senior vice president in 2004, was responsible for the planning and construction of the new ballpark, which opened in 1991. He also has overseen remodeling efforts to the ballpark over the past seven offseasons, including the construction of the new FUNDamentals Deck in left field and the Scout Seating Area behind home plate in 2005. In 2007, U.S. Cellular Field will feature a new Home Plate Club premium seating area on the 200 level and the final steps in the conversion of the ballpark's seating area to forest green.

Each of the seven offseason renovation phases to U.S. Cellular Field have focused on improving the game experience for White Sox fans by creating a more intimate and updated ballpark atmosphere. Over the seven years of renovations, under Savarise's supervision the White Sox have moved seating closer to the field of play, added the popular Fan Deck in center field, changed the color scheme of the ballpark and in its most dramatic change, removed the top eight rows of the ballpark's upper deck and added a flat roof over the back rows of the upper deck. Many of the renovations phases were made possible by the naming rights partnership with U.S. Cellular. Savarise handled the layout and re-design of all aspects of the ballpark.

Entering his 26th season with the Sox, Savarise also serves as senior vice president of operations for the United Center, home of the Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks. The arena hosts over 220 major events per year, making it one of the busiest in the United States. Savarise was responsible for all design and construction aspects of the state-of-the-art multipurpose arena. He also coordinated the installation and operation of the 1996 Democratic National Convention at the United Center.

Savarise spearheaded the design and construction of Tucson Electric Park, the White Sox spring training facility and stadium in Tucson, Ariz., which opened in the spring of 1998. He worked closely on the design and construction of Ed Smith Stadium and Sports Complex in Sarasota, Fla., which served as the club's spring training and minor-league headquarters from 1989-97. In addition, he assisted in the development of L.P. Frans Stadium, home of the White Sox former Class A affiliate in Hickory, North Carolina.

Prior to joining the Sox, Savarise served an internship with the Cleveland Cavaliers of the National Basketball Association in their All-Star Game season (1980-81). He is a member of the Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers and has served on the board of directors of the Stadium Managers' Association.

BROOKS BOYER

Vice President, Chief Marketing Officer

Brooks Boyer enters his fourth season as vice president and chief marketing officer in 2007 with the White Sox coming off their best attendance mark ever, drawing 2,957,411 fans to U.S. Cellular Field in 2006. In August 2006, the White Sox topped all other Chicago sports teams in Scarborough Research's WAL (Watched, Attended, Listened) figures, with 57.3 percent of all Chicagoans taking in a Sox game in 2006. The team also established all-time highs in season tickets sold, group tickets sold and corporate partnerships.

Last year's attendance total broke the club record of 2.93, set in 1991, the first season in the new park. The Sox ranked third in the American League in attendance in 2006, their highest finish since 1993, and topped the Central Division for the third straight season. The White Sox set a team-record with nearly 21,500 season tickets sold in 2006, and the franchise is looking to top 2 million in attendance in 2007 for the third straight year (first time since 1990-93).

The White Sox posted a franchise-record 52 sellouts in 2006, 34 more than the old record set in 2005, including 22 in a row from July 5-August 17. With 10 sellouts in 2004, the White Sox have sold out 80 of their last 243 games at U.S. Cellular Field. The Sox drew 75 crowds of 30,000 plus in 2006, including 67 straight to conclude the season. The 2005 White Sox energized Chicago by winning the franchise's third World Series Championship and first since 1917. Counting postseason action, over 2.6 million fans attended White Sox games at U.S. Cellular Field in 2005, including 18 regular-season sellouts.

After joining the White Sox in April 2004, Boyer made an immediate impact on the team's marketing, promotions, advertising and in-game entertainment. Boyer's goal is to create an exciting ballpark atmosphere that complements the action on the field by enhancing the ballpark experience for Sox fans of every age. In 2005 and 2006, the team's "take the field" audio and video montage were well-received by Sox fans as was the re-introduction of the "Go-Go White Sox" song from the 1950s. In 2007, weeknight games at U.S. Cellular Field will begin at 7:11 p.m., thanks to a unique new sponsorship with 7-Eleven.

Boyer, who worked for the Chicago Bulls for 10 seasons before joining the Sox, is responsible for the club's marketing, promotions, advertising, business development and broadcasting efforts, as well as overseeing ticket, sponsorship and premium seating sales. He brings a focus on first-class customer service to White Sox season ticket holders, sponsors and fans.

Boyer increased the size of the White Sox sales staff and has strongly emphasized the team's season ticket and group sales efforts. He directs the club's advertising efforts, which included the popular "Grinder Rules" campaigns of 2005-06 and "Us vs. Them" and "Sox Pride" spots in 2004. Boyer also is responsible for the club's relationships with its broadcast partners, WGN-TV, Comcast SportsNet Chicago and WCIU on the television side and the White Sox radio flagship station, The Score Sports Radio (WSCR, 670 AM). The White Sox, Cubs, Bulls and Blackhawks began a unique partnership with Comcast SportsNet Chicago in 2004-05. The local all-sports channel will televise 10 White Sox spring training games and over 95 regular-season contests in 2007. White Sox games are available in Spanish on WRTO (1200 AM) again in 2007 with 35 games set to be broadcast.

Boyer is a member of the board of Chicago White Sox Charities, the club's charitable initiative that annually provides support to various programs and charities throughout the Chicago area.

In his role with the Chicago Bulls, Boyer was responsible for overseeing Bulls and United Center sponsorships, advertising sales and sponsor services. He was senior director of corporate partnerships from 1998-2003 and was with the Bulls for the final three of their six NBA titles.

A 1994 graduate of Notre Dame where he was a member of the basketball team (1990-94) and a two-time captain, Boyer also is a graduate of the Kellstadt Graduate School of Business at De Paul. He and his wife, Julie, reside in Westmont with their four children.

SCOTT REIFERT
Vice President, Communications

As vice president of communications, Scott Reifert is responsible for the club's communication activities, including the messages the team uses to define its brand for White Sox fans. He oversees the club's strategic communications efforts, media services, mass communications functions, public relations activities, community relations initiatives and the team's website, www.whitesox.com. Reifert authors a blog, "Inside the White Sox" (available at www.mblogs.com), that provides fans with a behind-the-scenes look at the team and its players.

Reifert oversees the team's market research initiatives, which began in 1997, to gather feedback on the White Sox and fan perceptions. Reifert, in his 17th season with the club, is a member of the team's advertising committee and is involved in the commissioning of bronze sculptures of past Sox greats that stand on the main concourse in center field.

In 2006, White Sox fans voted A.J. Pierzynski to the All-Star Team as part of a "Punch A.J." campaign coordinated by the team. During the World Championship season in 2005, White Sox communications efforts included promoting Scott Podsednik's successful grass-roots campaign to be selected to the American League All-Star Team as Major League Baseball's "32nd Man," handling international and national media attention during the postseason and World Series and incorporating singer Steve Perry, formerly of Journey, and his song "Don't Stop Believin'," into the team's postseason run at the request of Sox players.

Reifert, who joined the White Sox in 1991 as assistant director of public relations before being promoted to director of public relations in 1997, was named vice president of communications in April 2004. During his first 10 years with the club, he frequently traveled with the team and handled the daily needs of the Chicago news media.

In addition to his communications responsibilities, Reifert serves as president of Chicago White Sox Charities. As president, Reifert leads the club's efforts to give back to the Chicago community through White Sox Charities and the club's community relations efforts. In 2006, Chicago White Sox Charities programs and initiatives helped raise a record $2.6 million after surpassing the $1 million level in 2005 for the first time since the charity's inception in 1991. In 2004, the White Sox reached out to the town of Ulica, Ill., giving the gift of baseball and a financial contribution to the town after it was devastated by a tornado. In 2005, Chicago White Sox Charities worked with the Chicago Park District to build a special, four-field complex in the Mt. Greenwood neighborhood on Chicago's southwest side. This complex, which includes a Miracle Field for special need athletes, opened in April 2005.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Reifert worked at Wirz & Associates, a Connecticut-based sports marketing and public relations firm with a variety of baseball-related clients. A 1988 graduate of the University of Iowa, Reifert also has a master's degree in sports management from Western Illinois University. He is married to Amy Howley, head women's soccer coach at the University of Chicago. They reside in the Hyde Park neighborhood of Chicago with their three children.

RICK HAHN
Vice President/Assistant General Manager

Rick Hahn, now in his seventh season with the White Sox, joined the club in November 2000 as director of major league administration, served as the club's assistant general manager from 2002-06 and was promoted to vice president/assistant general manager prior to the 2007 season.

Hahn's primary responsibilities include assisting Senior Vice President/General Manager Ken Williams with all player acquisitions, evaluations and contract negotiations, as well as with overseeing all elements of the club's baseball operations, including the scouting and player development departments. Williams credits Hahn with negotiating multiyear contracts with several current White Sox players, including 2006 All-Stars Mark Buehrle, Jose Contreras, Jermaine Dye, Paul Konerko and A.J. Pierzynski.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Hahn spent two years as an associate at Steinberg, Moorad & Dunn, a sports agency based in Newport Beach, Calif., which, at the time, represented more than 150 athletes from Major League Baseball, the National Football League and the National Basketball Association.

Hahn is a native of Winnetka, Ill. and a graduate of New Trier High School, the University of Michigan, the Harvard Law School and Northwestern's Kellogg Graduate School of Management. He and his wife, Jean, have two children, Jake and Charlie. The family resides in Glencoe, Ill.

DAVID WILDER
Senior Director of Player Personnel

David Wilder begins his fourth season in the White Sox organization, serving the first three as the club's director of player development before earning a promotion to senior director of player personnel prior to the 2007 season. He originally was hired by the White Sox as a special assistant to General Manager Ken Williams on November 5, 2003, before assuming the role of director of player development on December 8, 2003.

In his new role, Wilder is responsible for assisting General Manager Ken Williams with evaluating the major league club, as well as assisting with player development and scouting evaluation. As director of player development, Wilder oversaw the entire minor-league department and player development staff and also the club's Latin American Operations. In three seasons in that role, the White Sox system produced pitchers Bobby Jenks and Brandon McCarthy, third baseman Josh Fields and outfielders Brian Anderson, Jerry Owens and Ryan Sweeney for the major-league roster.

Wilder spent four seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers from 2000-03, working as a special assignment scout in 2003 after serving as vice president of player personnel from 2000-02. In that capacity, Wilder was the primary talent evaluator for the Brewers at both the major and minor league levels, oversaw their scouting and player development systems and directed the professional scouting staff. In 2000, he served as a member of the United States Olympic Baseball team's selection committee, helping assemble a club that won the gold medal at the Summer Games in Sydney, Australia.

Prior to joining the Brewers organization, Wilder was the assistant general manager for the Chicago Cubs during the 1999 season after spending the 1996-98 seasons as the Cubs farm director. Before joining the Cubs, he worked five seasons (1991-95) with the Atlanta Braves in various capacities, including assistant director of scouting and player development in 1995.

Wilder played seven seasons in the minor leagues as an outfielder with Oakland and the Cubs before retiring as a player in 1989. He began his player development career with the A's in 1990 as both a scout and coach with Class A Medford of the Northwest League.

DUANE SHAFFER
Senior Director of Amateur Scouting

Duane Shaffer begins his 35th season with the Chicago White Sox after serving the organization as a player, coach, roving instructor, manager, scout, supervisor and scouting director since 1969.

His current responsibilities include special assignment scouting and overseeing the club's amateur scouting coverage. Shaffer was the White Sox scouting director for 10 seasons (1991-2000) before serving as senior director of scouting in 2001. He was promoted to senior director of player personnel in February 2002 and currently serves as senior director of amateur scouting.

Shaffer was honored with the Scout of the Year award in 1987, when the Sox selected pitcher Jack McDowell in the first round. During his tenure, the White Sox selected Joe Crede in the fifth round of the 1996 draft and Mark Buehrle as a draft and follow in the 38th round of 1998.

Shaffer's only three seasons away from the White Sox since 1969 were spent on the west coast, first as national crosschecker with the American League Champion Oakland A's in 1988 and then as a special assignment scout for the California/Anaheim Angels in 1989-90.

Shaffer, a right-hander, pitched at Garden Grove (Calif.) High School and also attended Golden West Junior College. He was an 11th-round pick by the White Sox in the June 1969 draft. Shaffer and his wife, Nancy, have one son, Josh, two daughters, Andrea and Sarah, and three grandchildren. He resides in Anaheim Hills, Calif.

DAN FABIAN

Director of Baseball Operations

Dan Fabian begins his 22nd season with the White Sox and first as director of baseball operations. Fabian oversees the daily operation of the professional scouting effort, including scheduling, communications and the development of the White Sox Scouting Portal, which features both amateur and pro scouting reports, statistical information and video clips. The portal is used extensively by General Manager Ken Williams and Assistant General Manager Rick Hahn in analyzing potential major league roster moves, trades and waiver claims. He also oversees the club's video coaching efforts, processing of advance scouting reports and general statistical research for the baseball department.

Fabian worked the 1986-88 seasons as an intern in the White Sox public relations department before serving as the club's broadcast coordinator for two seasons (1989-90). He then spent two seasons as the manager of community relations (1991-92) before moving to the baseball department, where he worked as a scouting and player development administrator from 1993-96.

Fabian was promoted to assistant director of scouting/minor-league operations following the 1996 campaign and served in that capacity until his promotion to Director of Baseball Operations Systems in November 2000, a position he held for six seasons.

Fabian, a native of Park Ridge, Ill., graduated from Maine South High School in 1984 and from the University of Notre Dame in 1988. He spent four years as a student assistant in the Notre Dame sports information office. Fabian's father, Dan, is a former general manager of WGN Radio. Fabian and his wife, Nina, reside in Naperville, Ill.

ALAN REGIER

Director of Player Development

Alan Regier begins his second season in the White Sox organization and his first as director of player development. In his position, Regier oversees the entire minor-league department and player development staff, as well as the daily on-field development schedules for spring training and the Instructional League.

His in-season responsibilities include traveling to each of the White Sox affiliates to assist in the development and evaluation of all minor-league players within the system. Prior to joining the White Sox in January 2006, Regier worked as a scout for the Boston Red Sox from 2003-05. His duties included covering spring training, both major and minor-league teams, and the Arizona Fall League, as well as advance scouting Boston opponents. The Red Sox qualified for the postseason in each of Regier's three seasons with the organization, highlighted by the World Series title in 2005.

Regier served as a special assignment scout for the Milwaukee Brewers from 2000-02, covering spring training and the major leagues and minor leagues during the season. He also assisted the Brewers with the First-Year Player Draft, Latin America tryout camps and Latin America winter league coverage. Regier also spent two seasons with the Chicago Cubs (1998-99) as the minor-league field coordinator and three with the Atlanta Braves (1996-98) as an area scout supervisor in the Pacific Northwest and Northern California. The Cubs reached the postseason in 1998 and the Braves in 1995 and 1996 (World Series champions).

Regier spent the 1992-95 seasons with the Texas Rangers as their Northern California area scout. He played professionally for one season (1980) with Class A Redwood in the California League. He then served as an assistant coach for 11 seasons at Cal-Berkeley from 1982-92, where he recruited future major-leaguers Geoff Blum, Jeff Kent and Darren Lewis.

Regier was born in Oakland, Calif. on June 11, 1958 and raised in Hayward, where he earned all-area honors in baseball, basketball and football at Mount Eden High School. He attended Chabot Junior College, earning All-Golden Gate Conference honors as a first baseman while also playing football, and later the University of Arizona, where he was a member of the Wildcats 1980 NCAA championship team.

Regier earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Cal-State Hayward in 1982 and his master's degree in sports administration from St. Mary's (Calif.) College in 1985. While completing his college education, he worked as an assistant football and baseball coach at Chabot Junior College in Hayward, Calif. in 1981-82. Regier and his wife, Michelle, have two children: daughter Shelby and son Zachary.

GRACE GUERRERO ZWIT
Director of Minor League Administration

Entering her 25th year with the Chicago White Sox, Grace Zwit oversees the major league club's day-to-day operations involving the team's six minor-league affiliates.

Hired by Roland Hemond and Dave Dombrowski in 1982 as an assistant in the player development/scouting departments, Zwit was named assistant minor league administrator in 1986 and assistant to the director of scouting in 1990. In 1997, she was named assistant director of scouting/minor league administration under Ken Williams and Duane Shaffer. She was promoted to her current title in 2000.

As the liaison with minor league affiliates, Zwit coordinates all expenditures for the club's player development staff, professional and amateur scouts, roving instructors, minor-league players and the White Sox Latin American operation which includes two teams in the Dominican Republic.

Zwit acts as the club's liaison to the Minor League Baseball and the Commissioner's Office of Major League Baseball on all minor-league transactions, including minor-league contracts, player development contracts, outright assignments, releases, reserve lists and six-year free agents. She also works with the director of player development to organize spring training, monitor minor-league rosters, coordinates Instructional League and prepares a minor-league player guide. Zwit oversees the immigration process for minor and major-league players, coordinates English instruction and cultural assimilation courses for the club's Hispanic players and manages Spanish language instruction for the staff.

Born and raised on Chicago's south side, Zwit is a graduate of Maria High School. She and her husband, Jim, have two sons: Vincent and Christian, and two stepchildren: Jennifer and Jeffrey. They live in LaGrange Park, Ill.

DENNIS GILBERT
Special Assistant to Chairman Jerry Reinsdorf

Dennis Gilbert, a top agent in baseball before his early retirement in January 1999, joined the Chicago White Sox as special assistant to Chairman Jerry Reinsdorf on November 28, 2000.

Gilbert assists the White Sox in contract negotiations, as well as consulting on other baseball-related issues. Always active within the baseball community, Gilbert, along with Roland Hemond and scouts Dave Yoakum (White Sox) and Harry Minor (Mets), created the Professional Scouts Foundation in January 2003. The foundation, which holds annual fundraising dinners featuring guests such as Willie Mays, Sandy Koufax, Tom Lasorda and other baseball notables, support to scouts who have provided longtime service to the game but may have fallen on financial hard times due to illness, retirement or the non-renewal of their contracts.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Gilbert was involved in building a top-flight baseball stadium at Southwest College in south central Los Angeles that serves as the home field for Major League Baseball's RBI program (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities). The ballpark, Dennis Gilbert Field, celebrated its Opening Day on January 20, 2002. He continues his successful insurance practice in Beverly Hills, Calif.

After building his insurance business, Gilbert began his career as an agent in 1980 when he represented Hall of Famer George Brett. Gilbert added clients Bret Saberhagen, Danny Tartabull and Jose Canseco and then formed the successful Beverly Hills Sports Council. His client list included Barry Bonds, Bobby Bonilla, Mike Piazza and Curt Schilling, among others.

Gilbert played minor league baseball for four years and also has scouted in the Los Angeles area. He remains a longtime season-ticket holder for the Los Angeles Dodgers and Anaheim Angels.

Gilbert and his wife, Cinthia Vereen, reside in Hidden Hills, Calif. The couple has three children: Ashlee, Shannon and Hailey.

BILL SCHERRER

Special Assistant to General Manager Ken Williams

Bill Scherrer enters his fifth season with the White Sox and his third as special assistant to the general manager. Scherrer, who was hired by the Sox as a professional scout prior to the 2003 season, works directly for General Manager Ken Williams on special assignment scouting of other major league clubs.

Scherrer, a left-handed pitcher, spent seven seasons in the major leagues with the Cincinnati Reds (1982-84, 1987), Detroit Tigers (1984-86), Baltimore Orioles (1988) and Philadelphia Phillies (1989), going 8-10 with 11 saves and a 4.08 ERA (141 ER/311.1 IP) in 228 games (two starts).

In his first full season in the majors with the Reds in 1983, he compiled a 2.74 ERA (28 ER/92.0 IP) with 10 saves and tied for fourth in the National League with 73 appearances. Scherrer was a member of the 1984 World Champion Detroit Tigers and made three relief appearances in the World Series vs. San Diego, allowing one run in 3.0 IP.

After retiring as a player in 1991, Scherrer worked seven seasons (1992-98) as an area scout for the Florida Marlins and four (1999-2002) as a crosschecker with the Reds. He was selected in the sixth round of the June 1976 draft but attended UNLV for one semester, where he tried out for the basketball team. Scherrer was drafted again by the Reds with the first overall pick in January 1977.

Scherrer was born in Tonawanda, N.Y. on January 20, 1958 and resides in Grand Island, N.Y. with his wife, Michelle. He has six children: Lynn, Michael, C.J., Mary, Lore and Grace. His older brother, Jack, attended the University of Buffalo, where he played basketball against future NBA stars Bob Lanier, Calvin Murphy and Randy Smith.

DAVE YOAKUM

Special Assistant to General Manager Ken Williams

Dave Yoakum enters his 16th season with the White Sox, serving as special assistant to the general manager. Yoakum, who was hired by former Sox general manager Ron Schueler as a special assistant following the 1991 season, works directly for General Manager Ken Williams on special assignment scouting of other major league clubs.

A former infielder in the Detroit Tigers system (1966-70), Yoakum has worked as a coach, instructor, scouting supervisor or major-league scout for over three decades. Following his playing career, Yoakum was a player/coach in the Houston Astros organization (1971), a scouting supervisor/infield instructor for the Astros (1972), a scouting supervisor/infield instructor for the New York Yankees (1974-76), a scouting supervisor/minor league instructor with the Toronto Blue Jays (1977-80) and a major league advance scout for the Blue Jays (1981-91).

During his minor-league playing career, Yoakum was a teammate of four future major-league managers: Cito Gaston, Gene Lamont, Jim Leyland and Stump Merrill. In his 34 seasons as a scout, Yoakum has worked for executives Tal Smith, Pat Gillick, Schueler and Williams.

In January 2003, Yoakum, along with Dennis Gilbert, Roland Hemond and fellow scout Harry Minor (Mets), created the Professional Scouts Foundation. The foundation provides support to scouts who have been in baseball at least 25 years but may have fallen on financial hard times due to illness, retirement or the non-renewal of their contracts.

Yoakum was born in Middlesboro, Ky. on December 15, 1946, and graduated from New Albany (Ind.) High School. He resides in Orlando with his wife, Nina Wheeler, daughter Anna, son Dax and stepson Mark.

White Sox Mourn Passing Of Ray Berres

Ray Berres, well-respected pitching coach for the Chicago White Sox from 1949-66 and 1969, passed away on February 1 at age 99. Berres served as pitching coach under seven different White Sox managers, including Paul Richards (1951-54), Marty Marion (1954-56) and Al Lopez (1957-65, '69). Most often recognized as the architect behind the great pitching staffs of the Go-Go Sox era, Berres was best known for helping pitchers maximize their potential through his knowledge and passion for pitching mechanics. He is credited with helping a long list of White Sox pitchers, including Early Wynn, Bill Pierce, Gary Peters, Joe Horlen, Bob Shaw, Juan Pizarro, Tommy John, Dick Donovan, Hoyt Wilhelm, Wilbur Wood and Eddie Fisher. At 99 years old at the time of his death, Berres was believed to be the second-oldest living major league player, behind only Rollie Stiles, age 100, who pitched for the St. Louis Browns from 1930-33.

LARRY MONROE

Advisor to the Baseball Department

Larry Monroe is in his 34th year with the White Sox as a player, scout, minor-league instructor, coach, special assistant to the general manager, club executive and major-league scout. In his current position as advisor to the baseball department, Monroe enhances the club's scouting efforts during the season, and his experience allows him to advise the baseball department on potential player moves.

A former right-hander with the White Sox, Monroe has served in a variety of capacities with the club, including vice president of scouting and minor league operations (1990-94) and vice president of free agent and major league scouting (1994-2006).

In December 2003, Monroe's book, "Best-Kept Secrets of Major League Pitching," was published by Coaches Choice. The book, filled with tips, drills and photographs illustrating proper pitching mechanics, is intended to help teach coaches, parents and pitchers of any age the keys to avoiding injuries and maximizing their personal potential.

A graduate of Forest View High School in Arlington Heights, Ill., Monroe received all-conference baseball honors three times and all-area honors twice. He was the White Sox No. 1 selection in the June 1974 free agent draft and made his major-league debut on August 23, 1976 in Detroit, where he pitched two scoreless, hitless innings.

Monroe was born on June 20, 1956, in Detroit, Mich. He is married to Jaine and has three children: Taylor, Allison and Grant, and two stepchildren: Alexandra and Rachael.

ROGER BOSSARD

Head Groundskeeper

The man responsible for building and maintaining U.S. Cellular Field's highly regarded playing field is head groundskeeper Roger Bossard, now in his 41st season with the White Sox. Bossard was honored as the White Sox Executive of the Year at the 61st annual Pitch and Hit Club Awards dinner in January 2007.

Groundskeeping is a Bossard family tradition, with six members combining for 250 years of experience in the business. Roger's grandfather, Emil, served as head groundskeeper with the Cleveland Indians from 1932-68, while his father, Gene, was in charge with the White Sox from 1940-83. Roger Bossard joined the Sox in 1967 as an assistant to his father before taking over following Gene's retirement in 1983.

During the 2005 offseason, he designed and built the field at the new Busch Stadium in St. Louis after performing the same task at Boston's Fenway Park and Washington's RFK Stadium in 2004. Among the highlights of Bossard's resume, he is a consultant for 13 Major League Baseball teams and four NFL teams.

In addition to U.S. Cellular Field, Bossard has designed and built major-league fields in Arizona, Boston, Detroit, Milwaukee, St. Louis (both old and new Busch Stadium), Seattle and Washington, as well as spring training complexes for Cincinnati, Montreal, the Yankees, St. Louis, Arizona and the White Sox.

In 1984-85, Bossard designed and built the first natural turf soccer fields in Saudi Arabia for the Royal Family, where continues to serve as a consultant. Nineteen of 30 major-league teams use a patented drainage system that he developed specifically for the opening of U.S. Cellular Field in 1991. As part of the ballpark's 2000 offseason renovation, he built new bullpens and also re-configured the outfield grass, irrigation and drainage systems.

Major League Baseball Security Measures

Major League Baseball and the White Sox have established the following guidelines for the safety and enjoyment of guests attending games at U.S. Cellular Field in 2007:

- Guests may bring in food in small, clear (see-through) plastic bags.
- One sealed plastic bottle of water, one liter or less in size, is permitted per person. For guests with children, sealed juice boxes are permitted.
- Bags 16" x 16" x 8" and smaller are permitted. No bags larger than that size are allowed. All bags are searched. Briefcase and bag check facilities are available.
- Bottles, cans and other beverages or hard-sided coolers of any kind are not permitted.

ROLAND HEMOND

Executive Advisor

One of the most respected and experienced executives in baseball, Roland Hemond rejoined the Chicago White Sox as executive advisor to General Manager Ken Williams on November 30, 2000.

Hemond, a three-time winner of Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year award, brings 55 years of professional baseball experience to his position of executive advisor to the organization, including 23 seasons as a general manager with the White Sox (1971-85) and Baltimore Orioles (1988-95) and five seasons as a senior executive vice president with the Arizona Diamondbacks (1996-2000).

Hemond advises and represents the White Sox in a number of ways. Not only a valuable asset to the communications, community relations and baseball departments, he is a nationally recognized ambassador of the game and a highly sought-after speaker. Hemond's professionalism, friendliness and willingness to contribute ideas and advice are attributes unmatched in the industry.

He was presented with the prestigious "William J. Slocum" Award at the 83rd annual New York writers dinner in January 2006 and also with "The Honors Award" from the Baseball Coaches of America. In 2003, Hemond was honored with the esteemed "Branch Rickey Award," presented by the Rotary Club of Denver to individuals in baseball who contribute unselfishly to their community and who are strong role models for others. He was the first non-uniformed person to receive the award.

During his first stint with the White Sox, Hemond was named executive of the year in 1972 and 1983. The 1972 Sox, featuring Hemond acquisition Dick Allen and manager Chuck Tanner, went 87-67 for the franchise's first winning record in five seasons. The 1983 club went 99-83 and won the American League West Division title by 20.0 games, then a record for largest winning margin.

While with Baltimore in 1989, Hemond was tabbed executive of the year for the third time after the Orioles improved 32.5 games from the previous season. The 1992 Orioles made a 22.0-game improvement in the standings. Hemond left Baltimore after the 1995 campaign to work with the expansion Diamondbacks. During his tenure with the White Sox and Orioles, Hemond negotiated 135 trades involving 428 players.

Hemond was honored by Minor League Baseball for his longtime dedication and service to the game as the 2001 "King of Baseball." Hemond's baseball career began in 1951 as a front office member of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs. He also worked with the Boston/Milwaukee Braves from 1952-60 before being hired as scouting and farm director of the Los Angeles Angels in 1961.

Hemond remained in that role until joining the Sox in 1970. At the same time, the White Sox hired Tanner, who had served as manager of the Angels Class AAA team in Hawaii while Hemond was with California. The Hemond/Tanner tandem helped the Sox finish third and second in their first two seasons with the Sox. While with the Sox, Hemond worked for three different ownership groups, John Allyn, Bill Veeck and Jerry Reinsdorf. He left the Sox in 1985 and spent two years working for the Commissioner's office in New York before joining the Orioles.

Hemond is president of the Association of Professional Ballplayers of America (APBPA), a non-profit organization that helps former and current players and baseball personnel in need. He had served as first vice president of the APBPA for three years before being elected president. Along with Dennis Gilbert and scouts Dave Yoakum (White Sox) and Harry Minor (Mets), Hemond helped found the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation to provide assistance to long-time scouts who are in need of special support.

Three annual awards are named in Hemond's honor: The Roland Hemond Award, presented by the White Sox in honor of those who are dedicated to bettering the lives of others through extraordinary personal sacrifice; the Baseball America Award, presented to the person who has made major contributions to scouting and player development; and the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR) Award, given to the executive who has displayed great respect for scouts. Past recipients of the Hemond Award include Dr. Julian Lopez and Bill and Bonnie Cartwright, winners of the Baseball America Award include Buck O'Neill, George Kissell and Roger Jongewaard, and those honored by SABR include Bob Howstam, Paul Snyder and Pat Gillick. Hemond was the inaugural recipient of both the Baseball America and SABR Awards. In July 2006, he received an honorary degree in Humane Letters from the University of Phoenix.

Hemond is a native of Central Falls, R.I. He and his wife, Margo, have five children: Susan, Tere, Robert, Jay and Ryan, and three grandchildren: Taylor, Natalie and Zane. Margo's father is John Quinn, a former major-league general manager for 28 years. Her brother Bob served stints as general manager of the Yankees, Cincinnati Reds and San Francisco Giants, and her brother Jack was president of the NHL's St. Louis Blues after serving as general manager for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Mounties. Hemond's son, Bob, is founding partner of the Class AAA Sacramento River Cats of the Pacific Coast League. The Hemonds reside in Phoenix.

The 868 runs were 127 more than 2005 and the fourth-highest total in franchise history behind the 2000 (978), 1936 (920) and 1996 (898) clubs. Chicago scored 10-plus runs 17 times in 2006, up from eight in 2005. The White Sox also led the major leagues with 236 home runs in 2006, 14 more than Atlanta and six short of the franchise record of 242 set in 2004. The Sox have hit 200-plus home runs in seven consecutive seasons, extending the major-league record they share with the Yankees (also current). Jermaine Dye (career-high 44), Jim Thome (42), Paul Konerko (35) and Joe Crede (career-high 30) last season helped the Sox become just the third team in American League history to feature four players with 30 or more, joining the 2000 Anaheim Angels and 2000 Toronto Blue Jays.

■ 2006: Suffered his first losing record (12-13) in six full major-league seasons ... became the first pitcher in White Sox history to make 30 or more starts in six consecutive seasons ... also became one of seven pitchers (eight times) in franchise history to record 10 or more victories in at least six consecutive seasons and the first since Joel Horlen (1963-69) ... other Sox pitchers to accomplish that feat are Billy Pierce (1955-61), Ted Lyons (1924-30 and 1932-37), Doc White (1903-13), Eddie Cicotte (1913-20) and Ed Walsh (1906-12) ... was a part of the first Sox starting rotation to feature five 10-game winners since 1983 (LaMarr Hoyt, Rich Dotson, Floyd Bannister, Jerry Koosman and Britt Burns) ... joined Livan Hernandez (2000-06), Freddy Garcia (2001-06) and Barry Zito (2001-06) as the only active pitchers to throw 200.0 IP in each of the last six seasons ... his 204.0 IP and 98 strikeouts both were career lows (221.1 IP in 2001 and 119 strikeouts in 2003) ... also became the first Sox pitcher since Greg Hibbard in 1990 to throw more than 200.0 IP and strike out less than 100 batters ... ranked among the American League leaders in hits allowed (T1st, 247), home runs allowed (T2nd, 36), runs allowed (4th, 124), earned runs allowed (6th, 113) and losses (T6th) ... the 36 home runs are the second-highest total in Sox history behind only Floyd Bannister's 38 in 1987 ... gave up 27 homers in his last 18 starts ... led the AL with 10 pickoffs and tied for 10th by inducing 21 double plays ... opponents batted .305 (247-809), seventh-highest in the AL and up from his career mark of .262 entering the season ... lefties hit .238 (38-160) with six walks and 12 extra-base hits but right-handers were at .322 (209-649) ... allowed opponents the second-highest slugging percentage (.503) and sixth-highest on-base percentage (.346) in the AL ... both figures were career highs ... Sox turned two triple plays while he was on the mound: 5/14 at Minnesota and 9/18 vs. Detroit, both on infield pop ups with runners moving ... became the first pitcher since Washington's Bruce Howard in 1968 to be on the mound for two triple plays in one season ... went 9-6 with a 4.02 ERA (55 ER/123.0 IP) in 18 starts in the first half and was named to his third career All-Star Team and second straight (did not pitch) ... was 3-7 with a 6.44 ERA (58 ER/81.0 IP) after the break, with opponents hitting .343 (113-329) ... second-half ERA was the 10th-highest in the AL ... was 7-2 with a 2.62 ERA in 10 starts through 5/24, allowing one or no earned runs in five of those starts ... went 0-5 with a 11.48 ERA (34 ER/26.2 IP) in July, his second career winless month (0-4 in May 2003) ... his 11.48 ERA in July was the highest in the major leagues and surpassed his previous career monthly high of 7.16 (May 2003) by more than four runs ... posted a 4.65 ERA (64 ER/124.0 IP) at home, compared to 5.51 (49 ER/80.0 IP) on the road ... averaged 97.0 pitches per start, compared to 105.4 in 2005 ... averaged 2.12 walks per 9.0 IP (48 BB), the 12th-lowest average in the AL, and 4.3 strikeouts per 9.0 IP, down from his 5.4 career average entering the season ... issued just 22 walks in his last 19 starts (114.1 IP) ... received 4.99 runs of support per 9.0 IP ... allowed 10 or more hits seven times and seven-plus runs six times ... Sox were 17-15 in his starts ... made 16 quality starts ... averaged 6.1 IP per start ... lasted 8.0 IP or more six times ... posted a 9.56 ERA (34 ER/32.0 IP) in the first inning, with opponents hitting .395 (58-147) ... allowed a first-inning run in each of his final seven starts, giving up 10 runs total on 19 hits in that span ... minus the first inning, his season ERA would have been 4.13 (79 ER/172.0 IP), and opponents would have batted .285 (189-662) ... suffered a season-high, six-game losing streak from 7/2-8/17 ... went 0-6 with a 8.93 ERA (45 ER/45.1 IP) in eight starts during the streak, which was

DID NOT PITCH

Grab Some Bench

Jose Contreras recorded back-to-back double-digit strikeout games on June 12-17, 2006, becoming the first White Sox pitcher to accomplish that feat since Alex Fernandez in July 1994. Contreras struck out a career-high 11 batters on June 12 at Texas and then surpassed that mark with a 13-strikeout effort on June 17 at Cincinnati, the most by a Sox hurler since Fernandez also fanned 13 on 6/12/96 vs. Boston.

Dye-namic Duo

Jermaine Dye (44) and Jim Thome (42) in 2006 became the first teammates in White Sox history to each hit 40-plus home runs in one season. Dye hit a career-high 44 home runs last season, the second-highest total in the American League and second-most in Sox history behind Albert Belle's 49 in 1998. Thome hit 40-plus homers in a season (42) for the sixth time in his career and became the second player in major-league history (also Alex Rodriguez) to reach the 40-homer plateau with three different teams (Chicago, Cleveland and Philadelphia).

■ 1999: Spent first full season in the Sox organization ... combined to go 8-8 with a 3.59 ERA (63 ER/158.0 IP) in 26 starts between Class A Winston-Salem and Class AA Birmingham ... his 3.59 ERA ranked sixth in the organization ... also ranked among the organization leaders in shutouts (T1st, 1), games started (T4th, 26), complete games (T5th, 2), IP (6th, 158.0) and strikeouts (10th, 111) ... began the season with Winston-Salem, where he tied for second in the Carolina League in shutouts (one), tied for third in complete games (two) and ranked fourth in ERA (3.33) ... cited by Baseball America as having the Best Breaking Pitch in the organization ... tabbed the No. 6 Prospect in the CL in a postseason poll by same publication ... compiled a 2.28 ERA (11 ER/43.1 IP) over final six starts with the Warhogs ... was promoted to Birmingham on 7/31, where at age 19 he was the youngest player in the Southern League ... allowed one earned run over 12.0 IP (0.75 ERA) in first two starts following his promotion ... was promoted to Charlotte on 9/5 and made three playoff starts for IL champions, going 1-0 with a 3.18 ERA (6 ER/17.0 IP) ... set a Triple-A World Series record with eight strikeouts in Game 3 vs. Vancouver, allowing two unearned runs on five hits over 7.2 IP.

Garland The Great

Jon Garland has recorded back-to-back 18-win seasons, the first White Sox pitcher to win at least 18 in consecutive seasons since Jack McDowell won 20 in 1992 and 22 in 1993. Garland's 18 wins in 2006 ranked third in the major leagues, trailing only Minnesota's Johan Santana and the Yankees' Chien-Ming Wang (19 apiece), and his 36 combined wins in 2005-06 are tied with St. Louis' Chris Carpenter for the most in baseball. He went 14-4 with a 3.55 ERA (53 ER/134.1 IP) over his final 21 games (20 starts) of the 2006 season.

■ 1998: Named by Baseball America in a postseason survey as the No. 8 Prospect in the Sox organization ... split time between Class A Rockford in the Cubs system and Class A Hickory ... went a combined 5-11 with a 5.10 ERA (76 ER/134.0 IP) ... won first start for Hickory on 8/3 at Columbia, allowing one run on two hits with 11 strikeouts over 6.0 IP ... acquisition was recommended by White Sox scout Nathan Durst.

■ 1997: Started seven games for Rookie Mesa after being drafted by the Cubs in the first round of the June draft ... was named the No. 3 Prospect in Arizona League by Baseball America ... averaged 8.8 strikeouts (39 SO/40.0 IP) and 8.3 hits allowed (37 H) per 9.0 IP ... was signed by Steve Fuller (Cubs).

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

■ Among his charitable activities in 2006, delivered baby blankets to a local hospital with teammate Joe Crede ... during the 2004 season, delivered baby blankets to a local hospital, signed autographs to support organ donation with Secretary of State Jesse White and greeted participants from the Pepsi Pitch, Hit and Run competition at U.S. Cellular Field ... in 2002, attended the Chicago Special Olympics Opening Ceremonies and signed autographs at the James R. Thompson Center to promote the need for organ donors.

History Lesson

The White Sox in 2006 featured five 10-game winners on the same staff for the first time since 1990 when Greg Hibbard (14-9), Jack McDowell (14-9), Melido Perez (13-14), Eric King (12-4) and Barry Jones (11-4) accomplished the feat. All 11 of Jones' wins in 1990 came in relief. Jon Garland (18-7) led the 2006 Sox in victories, followed by Freddy Garcia (17-9), Jose Contreras (13-9), Mark Buehrle (12-13) and Javier Vazquez (11-12). It also marked the first time since 1983 that five Sox starters won 10 or more games in the same season: Cy Young Award winner LaMarr Hoyt (24-10), Rich Dotson (22-7), Floyd Bannister (16-10), Jerry Koosman (11-7) and Britt Burns (10-11).

Slam The Door

Bobby Jenks ranked third in the major leagues with 41 saves in 2006 and sixth with a 91.1 (41-45) save percentage. His 41 saves are the third-highest total in Sox history, trailing Bobby Thigpen (major-league record 57 in 1990) and Keith Foulke (42 in 2001), and his 91.1 save percentage is second to Foulke (93.3 in 2001). Jenks is the third pitcher in history to record at least 40 saves in either his first or second season in the major leagues, joining Seattle's Kaz Sasaki (45 in 2001, second season) and Washington's Chad Cordero (47 in 2005, second season).

Stingy Arms

White Sox pitchers allowed just two runs in four games from April 17-21, 2006, which according to the Elias Sports Bureau is their fewest in a four-game stretch since May 2-6, 1973 when they also gave up two runs. The Sox held Kansas City to one run on 11 hits on April 17-19, 2006, their fewest runs in a three-game series since 9/9-11/66 vs. Washington. Jose Contreras and two relievers combined on a one-hit shutout on April 17, and Javier Vazquez carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning on April 19. Sox pitchers faced 91 hitters in that Royals series, just 10 more than the minimum.

Haven't Seen That Before

Kansas City and the White Sox both hit leadoff home runs in the first and second innings on August 17, 2006 at U.S. Cellular Field, which according to the Elias Sports Bureau was the first time in major-league history that feat has been accomplished. David DeJesus and Emil Brown homered leading off the first two innings for the Royals, while Pablo Ozuna (first) and Jermaine Dye (second) went deep for the Sox. The previous time a White Sox game featured leadoff home runs in the first inning was on June 13, 2001 vs. Cincinnati (Brady Clark and Ray Durham).

The Road To 500

Jim Thome is attempting to become the 21st player in major-league history to hit 500 career home runs. Thome has averaged 38 home runs per season since 1996 and has hit at least 40 in each of his last five full campaigns (42 in 2006). Among active players entering 2007, Frank Thomas has 487 homers, Manny Ramirez is at 470, Alex Rodriguez 464 and Gary Sheffield 455. According to David Vincent of the Society For American Baseball Research, there only have been three seasons since 1967 in which two batters each have joined the 500 club: Mickey Mantle and Eddie Mathews (1967), Harmon Killebrew and Frank Robinson (1971) and Sammy Sosa and Rafael Palmeiro (2003).

Century Club

Jermaine Dye (117), Paul Konerko (113) and Jim Thome (109) in 2006 became the second trio in White Sox history to record 100-RBI seasons. Frank Thomas (134), Robin Ventura (105) and Danny Tartabull (101) were the first three Sox teammates to accomplish the feat in 1996. The Sox never have featured four players with 100 RBI in a single season.

straight games ended on 4/15 vs. Florida ... the streak was the longest in the majors since Oakland's Mark McGwire reached in 62 consecutive contests over the 1995-96 seasons ... hit two game-tying solo home runs in a 6-5 win on 6/21 vs. Boston (eighth and 12th inning) ... became the sixth player in baseball history to hit a pair of game-tying homers after the seventh inning in the same game (last, Roberto Alomar on 5/10/91) ... recorded career RBI No. 1,000 and 1,001 with a two-run homer on 7/23 at the Cubs ... homered in four straight games from 8/15-19, one shy of the club record ... named NL co-Player of the Week for 8/11-17 (.364, 5 HR, 9 RBI) ... hit 10 home runs in August, tied for the NL lead with Montreal's Vladimir Guerrero ... drove in a run in eight straight games from 9/11-19, the longest streak by a Phillies player since Rico Brogna in 1999 (eight) ... hit two homers on 9/27 vs. Atlanta, including the final home run at Veterans Stadium in the eighth inning ... received NL Player of the Month honors for September after leading the league with 10 home runs and 30 RBI ... the 10 homers marked a club monthly record as he became the first Phillie to garner a monthly award since Lenny Dykstra in 5/94.

■ 2002: His 52 home runs were a career high, a Cleveland franchise record, and second-most in the American League behind Texas' Alex Rodriguez (57) ... became the 21st player in major-league history to hit at least 50 home runs in a season (36th time) ... extended his club record streak of at least 20 home runs to nine consecutive seasons and 30 or more homers to seven straight ... also broke his own Indians home run record by a lefty (49 in 2001) ... led the AL in slugging percentage (.667), walks (122), average at home (.350), home-run ratio (9.2 AB), RBI-ratio (4.1 AB) ... also ranked among the league leaders in on-base percentage (2nd, .445), RBI (7th, 118), total bases (8th, 325) and extra-base hits (9th, 73) ... topped the .300 plateau for the first time since 1996 (.311) ... lowered his strikeout total from a league-high 185 in 2001 to 139 ... batted .333 (107-321) vs. right-handers, tied for second in the AL ... was 41-120 (.342) with runners in scoring position ... his .338 (70-207) average after the All-Star Break ranked fifth in the league, while his 26 homers were second only to Rodriguez (30) ... posted five multihomer games and tied his career high with four hits on four occasions (last, 9/13 vs. Minnesota) ... homered in four straight games from 4/10-13, including his sixth career grand slam on 4/10 vs. Minnesota (off Rick Reed) ... hit a home run in an Indians-record seven consecutive games on 6/25-7/3, the third-longest streak in major-league history ... notched his seventh grand slam on 7/29 vs. Detroit (off Juan Acevedo) ... reached base safely in his final 55 games, the second-longest streak in the season (San Diego's Ryan Klesko, 56).

■ 2001: Ranked seventh in the AL MVP voting after hitting .291 with 49 home runs and 124 RBI ... the 49 homers were the most by a Cleveland left-handed hitter since Hal Trosky hit a then-club record 42 in 1936 and his 124 RBI were the most since Larry Doby's 126 in 1954 ... was named to The Sporting News postseason All-Star Team ... ranked among the AL leaders in home runs (2nd), slugging percentage (2nd, .624), walks (T2nd, 111), on-base percentage (3rd, .416), RBI (5th), total bases (5th, 328) and extra-base hits (T6th, 76) ... hit 45 of his 49 home runs off right-handers (91.8 percent) ... recorded six multihomer games ... batted .331 with runners in scoring position, eighth-best in the AL ... his 30 home runs at home tied the club record, while his 81 RBI led the AL ... hit his first career pinch homer on 5/15 at Texas ... passed Albert Belle as Cleveland's all-time home run leader with his 243rd on 5/29 at Detroit (off Victor Santos) ... went 4-5 with two solo home runs and three runs scored on 6/2 vs. the Yankees ... homered in five straight games from 6/9-14 ... matched his career best with three home runs and six RBI on 7/6 vs. St. Louis ... was named the AL Player of the Month for July (.381, 12 HR, 39 RBI), his first career monthly honor ... led the league in average, homers and RBI in July ... the 39 RBI were the most by an Indians player in one month since Hal Trosky in 7/36 (45) ... drew his 858th career walk on 9/4 vs. the White Sox, moving past Tris Speaker as the all-time franchise leader.

■ 2000: Collected at least 100 walks, 100 runs scored and 100 RBI for the fourth time in the last five seasons ... hit at least 30 home runs for the fifth consecutive season ... ranked third in the AL in walks (118) and tied for 10th in home runs (37) ... made 106 starts at first base and 48 at designated hitter ... 26 of 37 homers were solo and 31 came off right-handers ... produced four multihomer games ... tied a major-league record by striking out five times on 4/9 at Tampa Bay ... hit his 200th career home run on 4/15 vs. Texas ... collected 1,000th career hit on 8/23 vs. Oakland (off Tim Hudson).

■ 1999: Became the first left-handed batter in Cleveland history to hit 30 home runs in four straight seasons ... set a club record with 127 walks, surpassing his own record set in 1996 (123) ... led the AL in walks and strikeouts (171), the first player to do so since New York's Mickey Mantle in 1958 ... ranked among the AL leaders in walks (1st), grand slams (1st, 3), intentional walks (T5th, 13) and on-base percentage (6th, .426) ... made 109 starts at first base and 34 at designated hitter ... posted a .994 (6 ER/1,019) fielding percentage, fourth-best among AL first baseman ... hit .331 with runners in scoring position ... served a three-game suspension on 5/5-7 after charging Boston's Rheal Cormier on 4/23 ... hit a 511-foot home run on 7/3 vs. Kansas City, the longest home run in Jacobs Field history.

MLB Home Run Leaders 1996-2006

Jim Thome ranks fifth in the major leagues with 417 home runs since 1996, an average of 37.9 per season ... Thome has hit 40-plus homers in each of his last five full seasons, excluding 2005 when he was limited by injury to 59 games ... he and Alex Rodriguez are the only players in major-league history to hit 40 or more home runs in a season for three different teams ... baseball's home run leaders since 1996:

Mi Casa Es Su Casa

Due to the effects of Hurricane Ivan, U.S. Cellular Field became the site of the first two games of the Florida-Montreal series on September 13-14, 2004. The "host" Marlins won both games before crowds of 4,003 and 5,457. It marked the first time that a National League team hosted a regular-season game in an American League park since 1946 (Boston Braves at Fenway Park). All tickets were $15 general admission, with $5 of each ticket going toward the Florida Hurricane Relief Fund.

Four Of The Top 10 Batting Leaders

The Chicago White Sox have finished with four of the league's Top 10 batters twice in franchise history. The feat has occurred just 23 times in major-league history (last by the Chicago Cubs in 1988). In 1945, Tony Cuccinello (2nd, .308), Johnny Dickshot (3rd, .302), Wally Moses (6th, .295) and Oris Hackett (8th, .293) finished among the American League's Top 10. In 1960, Al Smith (2nd, .315), Minnie Minoso (3rd, .311), Roy Sievers (6th, .295) and Nellie Fox (9th, .289) accomplished the feat.

90/90 Vision

The White Sox have won 90 or more games in back-to-back seasons for just the fifth time in franchise history and first since 1963-65. The Sox won 99 games in 2005 and followed with 90 last season. The White Sox also recorded 90-plus wins in consecutive seasons in 1964-65, 1963-64, 1954-55 and 1905-06. The 189 combined wins in 2005-06 are the Sox highest total in back-to-back campaigns since winning 193 in 1964-65. Only five teams in baseball owned a better record than Chicago in 2006.

90/90 Vision

The White Sox have won 90 or more games in back-to-back seasons for just the fifth time in franchise history and first since 1963-65. The Sox won 99 games in 2005 and followed with 90 last season. The White Sox also recorded 90-plus wins in consecutive seasons in 1964-65, 1963-64, 1954-55 and 1905-06. The 189 combined wins in 2005-06 are the Sox highest total in back-to-back campaigns since winning 193 in 1964-65. Only five teams in baseball owned a better record than Chicago in 2006.

Magnificent Seven

Pitchers Mark Buehrle, Jose Contreras and Bobby Jenks, infielders Paul Konerko and Jim Thome, outfielder Jermaine Dye and catcher A.J. Pierzynski represented the White Sox at the 2006 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh. The seven All-Stars were the most by the Sox since they also sent seven in 1960 (Luis Aparicio, Nellie Fox, Sherm Lollar, Minnie Minoso, Al Smith, Gerry Staley and Early Wynn). Konerko was 2-2 in the Midsummer Classic, collecting a two-out single in the ninth inning to start the winning AL rally.

Run-Scoring Machine

The White Sox ranked third in the major leagues with 868 runs scored in 2006, trailing only the Yankees (930) and Cleveland (870). The 868 runs were 127 more than 2005 and the fourth-highest total in franchise history behind the 2000 (978), 1936 (920) and 1996 (898) clubs. Chicago scored 10-plus runs 17 times in 2006, up from eight in 2005.

Saving The Pen

White Sox starting pitchers have led the major leagues in IP in each of the last two seasons, throwing 1,042.0 in 2006 and 1,074.0 in 2005. Freddy Garcia (216.2), Jon Garland (211.1), Mark Buehrle (204.0) and Javier Vazquez (202.2) all threw 200-plus IP in 2006, the second straight season the Sox have featured four starters with 200 or more but just the 13th in franchise history and third since 1928 (also 1984 and 2005). Jose Contreras (196.0) fell 4.0 IP of joining that group. In addition, the Sox and New York Mets were the only teams in baseball last season to have five different pitchers throw a complete game.

Record Setter

Jim Thome scored at least one run in each of the White Sox first 17 games of 2006, setting the major-league record to begin a season (source: Elias Sports Bureau). Red Rolfe (1939) and Kenny Lofton (2000) share the American League mark by scoring a run in 18 straight games at any point during a season, while Billy Hamilton (1894) holds the major-league record of 25.

Home-Field Advantage

The White Sox went 49-32 (.605) at U.S. Cellular Field in 2006, tied with Oakland for the fourth-best home winning percentage in the American League. The Sox hit 136 home runs at home last season, the second-highest total in franchise history (145 in 2004). Chicago has gone 716-543 (.573) in 16 seasons at the new ballpark, the fourth-best record in the AL behind the Yankees (772-486, .614), Boston (724-546, .570) and Oakland (721-541, .571).

Winning Ways

The White Sox own a 189-135 (.583) record over the last two seasons, the second-best winning percentage in baseball behind the Yankees (.593, 192-132). The Angels are third during that span with a .568 (184-140) winning percentage followed by St. Louis (.567, 183-140), Boston and Oakland (.559, 181-143 each). Including their 11-1 postseason run, the Sox record is 200-136 (.595) since 2005. The Sox have finished .500 or better in seven straight seasons, their longest run since a 17-year stretch from 1951-67. They also have posted four straight winning records, their longest stretch since five in a row from 1990-94.

Stiff Competition

The American League Central division featured three teams with 90 or more victories in 2006: Minnesota at 96-66, Detroit at 95-67 and the White Sox at 90-72. It marked just the 11th time since 1969 (when baseball went to divisional play) that a division has included three teams with 90-plus wins. The previous instance was in 2002 when the West divisions in each league accomplished the feat. The AL East included four teams with 90 or more wins in 1978.

Turn Three

The Sox turned triple plays on May 14, 2006 at Minnesota and September 18, 2006 vs. Detroit, both with Mark Buehrle on the mound. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Sox became the first team in the major leagues to record two triple plays in one season since Boston in 1995. Buehrle became the first pitcher to be on the mound for two triple plays in one season since Bruce Howard for the 1968 Washington Senators.

Slugging Sox

The Sox featured three players who ranked among the American League leaders in slugging percentage in 2006. Jermaine Dye finished third with a career-high .622 mark, Jim Thome was fifth at .598 and Paul Konerko ninth at .551. The Sox led the major leagues with a .464 slugging percentage last season, the first time since 1974 (.389) they led in that department.

No RISP, No Reward

The White Sox led the major leagues with a .307 (417-1,360) average with runners in scoring position in 2006, the fourth-highest figure in baseball since at least 1974. According to STATS Inc., only the Colorado Rockies (.311 in 1996 and .311 in 2000) and 1975 Boston Red Sox (.308) have posted higher averages during that span. Paul Konerko (4th, .366), Jermaine Dye (7th, .351), Joe Crede (12th, .343) and Jim Thome (17th, .336) ranked among the AL leaders in 2006.

On The Defense

The White Sox set a franchise record with a .9852 fielding percentage in 2006, breaking the record set in 2005 (.9848). Joe Crede ranked third among American League third basemen with a .978 fielding percentage, Juan Uribe was fourth among AL shortstops at .977, and Paul Konerko was fifth among first basemen at .995. A.J. Pierzynski's 150-game errorless streak, nine short of the AL record for catchers set by Rick Cerone from 1987-89, ended on May 19, 2006 vs. the Cubs.

White Sox And Interleague

The White Sox went 14-4 in interleague play in 2006, tied for the fourth-best record in baseball. The Sox led the major leagues with 34 home runs, a .321 (210-654) average and 140 runs scored and outscored the opposition, 140-83, an average of 7.8-4.8 runs scored per game. Chicago's 7.8 runs per game was the second-highest total in interleague history behind Boston's 8.4 in 2003. The White Sox went 8-1 in National League parks after going 7-2 in 2005. They batted .358 (119-332) with 64 runs scored without the designated hitter, and the pitching staff posted a 3.60 ERA (32 ER/80.0 IP). Chicago has gone 100-75 (.571) all-time in interleague play, tied for the third-best winning percentage in baseball with Florida (.571, 96-72).

■ The White Sox drew a franchise-record 2,957,411 fans in 2006 (36,511 per date), breaking the previous record of 2,934,154 set in 1991, the first season at new Comiskey Park ... the Sox ranked third in the American League in attendance, their highest finish since 1993 (also third) and topped the AL Central for the third straight season.

■ The Sox recorded a franchise-record 52 sellouts, 34 more than the old record set in 2005, including 22 in a row from 7/5-8/17 ... they drew 75 crowds of 30,000 plus, including 67 straight to conclude the season ... the White Sox drew 2,517,290 fans over their final 67 home dates, an average of 37,571.

■ The 26.2 percent increase in attendance from last season's average of 28,924 ranked second in the major leagues behind Detroit (28.2), and the White Sox played to 89.9 percent capacity in 2006, the fourth-highest figure in the AL.

HISTORY

WHITE SOX TIMELINE

Pre-1900

- Nov. 20, 1893 At a meeting held in the Grand Hotel Indianapolis, the Western League is formally organized. Charles Comiskey nominates Ban Johnson for president of the league. The Sioux City franchise is awarded to a local businessman named H. H. Drake. A year later Comiskey's contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs expires. At the behest of Ban Johnson, Charles Comiskey purchases the Sioux City team and moves it to St. Paul.
- Oct. 11, 1899 The American League is christened in Chicago, amid rumors that the St. Paul club will transfer to the south side.

1901-1909

- March 21, 1900 An agreement is signed which lands the St. Paul Saints in Chicago.
- April 2, 1900 Playing as the Chicago team for the first time, the White Stockings defeat the University of Illinois, 10-9, in Champaign. Roy Patterson is the victor.
- April 21, 1900 The Chicago White Sox play their first game in a small wooden ballpark located at 39th and Princeton. The Sox lose to Milwaukee, 5-4.
- April 22, 1900 The Sox defeat the Brewers, 5-3, behind Roger Denzer for the club's first victory.
- Sept. 12, 1900 The White Sox clinch the 1900 pennant by defeating the Cleveland Blues, 12-4, in Chicago.
- Jan. 28, 1901 Meeting in closed door sessions in Chicago, the American League drafts a 140-game schedule and declares itself to be a second Major League.
- April 24, 1901 The first "official" American League game is played in Chicago with Roy Patterson beating Cleveland, 8-2.
- Sept. 21, 1901 Even though they lose in Philadelphia, the White Sox capture their second consecutive American League pennant.
- Sept. 20, 1902 Nixey Callahan fires the first Sox no-hitter against the Detroit Tigers.
- June 9, 1903 The White Sox are incorporated under Illinois law with $5,000 capital.
- June 5, 1904 Fielder Jones replaces Nixey Callahan as manager.
- Oct. 2, 1904 Doc White's streak of 45.0 consecutive scoreless innings is snapped by the New York Highlanders in Chicago.
- August 23, 1906 The White Sox win their 19th successive game, downing the Washington Senators, 4-1, behind pitcher Roy Patterson.
- Oct. 14, 1906 The Sox claim the only all-Chicago World Series, defeating the Cubs, 8-3, in the finale to win four of the six meetings.
- Oct. 5, 1908 Ed Walsh wins his 40th game of the season, downing Detroit, 6-1. His win total remains a Chicago single-season record.
- Jan. 19, 1909 Charles Comiskey purchases a tract of land near the corner of 35th and Shields from Roxanna Bowen, a descendant of former Chicago Mayor John Wentworth. Later that year, architect Zachary Taylor Davis is commissioned to design a spacious ballpark for the Sox on the site.
- Oct. 6, 1909 Davis submits his proposed ballpark design to Comiskey for approval.

1910-1919

- March 17, 1910 The cornerstone of Comiskey Park is laid on St. Patrick's Day.
- June 27, 1910 The Sox play for the last time at the 39th St. Grounds, losing to Cleveland, 7-2.

- July 1, 1910 Comiskey Park opens to a packed house but the Sox lose to St. Louis, 2-0.

- Sept. 28, 1997 Frank Thomas finishes with a .347 average to become the second player (third time) in club history to capture the American League batting title. Thomas wins by .017 over Seattle's Edgar Martinez as he joins Luke Appling (1936 and 1944) as the only Sox players to win the crown.

WHITE SOX TIMELINE

- Dec. 4, 1997 Jerry Manuel is named the club's 36th manager. Manuel becomes the second minority manager in Sox history (Larry Doby served as interim manager for 87 games in 1978) and the first African-American hired as manager or head coach in Chicago sports history.
- July 31, 1998 Albert Belle establishes a major-league record by hitting his 16th home run in July, breaking the previous mark of 15 shared by Joe DiMaggio (1937), Hank Greenberg (1938), Joe Adcock (1956) and Juan Gonzalez (1996).
- Sept. 1, 1998 Albert Belle hits his 42nd home run and records his 337th total base at Baltimore to set franchise single-season records in both categories. Belle eclipses the existing home run mark held by Frank Thomas (1993) and total bases mark held by Joe Jackson (1920).
- May 29, 1999 Greg Norton hits two home runs for the second straight game, becoming the first Sox player since Zeke Bonura in May 1935 to accomplish that feat.
- July 6, 1999 Chris Singleton becomes the fourth player in franchise history (first rookie) to hit for the cycle when he goes 5-6 with four RBI vs. Kansas City.

2000-

- April 27, 2000 Jose Valentin becomes the fifth player in club history and second in two years (Chris Singleton) to hit for the cycle. Valentin produces a "natural" cycle when he singled in the first inning, doubled in the second, tripled in the third and homered in the eighth.
- April 30, 2000 The Sox set a major-league record by scoring 181 runs in April, breaking the mark of 180 set by Texas in 1998.
- July 4, 2000 Ray Durham and Jose Valentin lead off the game at Kansas City with back-to-back home runs, marking the first time the Sox have accomplished that feat since Boze Berger and Mike Kreevich did it on 9/2/37 vs. Boston. The White Sox 12-game road winning streak, the longest in baseball since Detroit won 17 straight to open the 1984 season, ends at Kansas City. Their last 10 road wins come vs. teams who were 500 or above at the time of the game. According to Elias Sports Bureau, the Sox are the only team in baseball since 1900 to accomplish that feat.
- July 14, 2000 Frank Thomas breaks Luke Appling's 50-year-old club record of 1,116 RBI vs. St. Louis, reaching the mark in 1,459 games. Appling set the mark in 2,422 games.

- July 10, 2001 Magglio Ordonez goes 2-3 with a home run at the All-Star Game in Seattle, becoming the second player in Sox history to homer in the Midsummer Classic. His solo home run off the Cubs Jon Lieber follows a solo shot by New York's Derek Jeter as they become the fifth teammates in All-Star Game history to hit back-to-back homers.
- Oct. 7, 2001 Magglio Ordonez hits his 40th double on the season's final day at Minnesota to become the seventh player in major-league history (first in the American League) to hit .300 with 40 doubles, 30 home runs, 100 RBI and 25 stolen bases in one season.
- July 9, 2002 Paul Konerko ties an All-Star Game record with two doubles in Milwaukee.
- Jan. 31, 2003 U.S. Cellular and the White Sox sign a 23-year, $68-million naming rights agreement as the former Comiskey Park, opened in 1991, becomes U.S. Cellular Field. Revenue from the agreement allows the White Sox and the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority to undertake significant structural renovations to the ballpark by Opening Day 2005.
- July 15, 2003 The White Sox and U.S. Cellular Field host Major League Baseball's 74th All-Star Game. The American League rallies for a 7-6 victory before a crowd of 47,609. Pitcher Esteban Loaiza and outfielders Carl Everett and Magglio Ordonez represent the White Sox. Loaiza becomes the first Sox pitcher since Early Wynn in 1959 to start the game, throwing 2.0 scoreless IP.
- Nov. 4, 2003 Ozzie Guillen, who played for the White Sox from 1985-97, is named the club's 37th manager. Guillen, 40, becomes the first native Venezuelan to manage a major-league club.
- June 15, 2004 Carlos Lee hits safely in his 28th consecutive game with a 10th-inning double at Florida, breaking the club record shared by Albert Belle and Luke Appling (27).
- Sept. 13-14, 2004 Due to Hurricane Ivan, U.S. Cellular Field becomes the site of the first two games of the Florida-Montreal series. It marks the first time that a National League team has hosted a regular-season game in an American League park since 1946. The Marlins win both games before crowds of 4,003 and 5,457.
- Sept. 21, 2004 The White Sox hit their 133rd home run at home vs. Minnesota, breaking the club mark of 132 set in 2002.
- Sept. 24, 2004 The White Sox hit their 221st home run vs. Kansas City, breaking the club mark of 220 set in 2003.
- Sept. 6, 2005 In a 6-5 victory vs. Kansas City, the White Sox reach the 2 million mark in attendance for just the seventh time in franchise history and first since 1993. The Sox finish the season with 2,342,833 fans, the fourth-largest total in club history.
- Sept. 29, 2005 Bobby Jenks retires Placido Polanco on a lineout to first baseman Paul Konerko as the White Sox capture their second American League Central division crown and advance to the postseason for the eighth time in franchise history.
- Oct. 22, 2005 U.S. Cellular Field is the site the first World Series game in Chicago since Game 6 of the 1959 Fall Classic when the White Sox lost to the Los Angeles Dodgers, 9-3. The White Sox defeat the Houston Astros, 5-3, behind solo home runs by Jermaine Dye and Joe Crede and 7.0 IP from Jose Contreras.
- Oct. 26, 2005 The White Sox defeat Houston, 1-0, in Game 4 of the World Series at Minute Maid Park, completing a four-game sweep for their first World Championship since 1917. Freddy Garcia combines with three relievers on a five-hitter, with rookie Bobby Jenks retiring Orlando Palmiero on a groundout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the Sox 88-year championship drought.
- April 2, 2006 The White Sox unveil their 2005 World Series banner on Opening Night vs. Cleveland.
- July 11, 2006 Ozzie Guillen manages the American League All-Stars to a 3-2 victory over the National League at PNC Park in Pittsburgh. The White Sox send seven players to the Midsummer Classic, their most since 1960 (also seven).
- 2006 season The White Sox break the franchise's all-time attendance record with 2,957,411 fans, including a club-record 52 sellouts.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX 4 CHICAGO CUBS 2

Recap: The White Sox, dubbed the "Hitless Wonders" for their lack of offensive punch, defeated the heavily favored Cubs, winners of a major-league record 116 games, in what was billed as the Trolley Car Series ... the Sox batted a league-low .230 during the regular season, were shut out 16 times and hit just seven home runs ... conversely, the Cubs fielded the legendary infield of Joe Tinker, Johnny Evers and Frank Chance, and featured the National League's top pitcher in future Hall of Famer Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown ... the Sox pitching staff posted a league-best 32 shutouts, with ace Ed Walsh recording a league-best 10 followed by Doc White and Frank Owen with seven apiece ... despite hitting only .198 in the series, the pitching staff stymied the Cubs offense, compiling a 1.67 ERA (10 ER/54.0 IP) while allowing only 27 hits (.196 average).

Recap: The White Sox and Orioles hooked up in one of the more memorable pitching duels in postseason history, with Tito Landrum breaking a scoreless tie in the 10th inning with a solo homer off Britt Burns to clinch the series for Baltimore ... Burns matched scoreless frames with Baltimore pitchers Storm Davis and Tippy Martinez through nine innings before Landrum hit Burns' 150th pitch of the afternoon through a stiff wind into the left field stands ... Salome Barojas replaced Burns and gave up two more runs to account for the final margin ... Davis threw 6.0 scoreless IP for the Orioles, and Martinez went the final 4.0 IP to earn the win ... the White Sox left 10 men on base, stranding at least one runner in each inning but the first ... Chicago squandered a prime scoring chance in the seventh ... with runners on first and second and one out, Julio Cruz hit a single to left field with lead runner Vance Law being stopped at third base ... Jerry Dybzinski, the runner on first, overran second base and was caught in a rundown ... during the rundown, Law broke for home but was tagged out in a collision at the plate ... Rudy Law, the Sox leading hitter in the series (.389), then struck out to end the threat ... Cruz finished 3-3, and Harold Baines was 2-4.

Stan Javier then bunted pinch-runner Rickey Henderson to third base and following a walk to David Bell, Guillen delivered his game-winner ... the Sox managed just three hits and grounded into double plays in the first, fourth and eighth innings ... Sox starter James Baldwin allowed just one run on three hits over 6.0 IP, and Bob Howry followed with 2.0 scoreless IP ... Seattle's Aaron Sele gave up one run on three hits over 7.1 IP ... 41-year-old Harold Baines doubled and scored the Sox only run in the second inning.

The White Sox eliminated the defending World Champion Boston Red Sox with a three-game sweep in the ALDS, capped by a 6-3 victory in Game 3 at Fenway Park. It was the first postseason series win for the White Sox since 1917.

ALDS: White Sox 3, Red Sox 0

Game 1: White Sox 14, Red Sox 2

Notes: The White Sox began their eighth postseason appearance with a 14-2 victory, ending a nine-game playoff losing streak at home ... A.J. Pierzynski hit two of Chicago's five home runs, becoming the fifth catcher in major-league history to accomplish the feat in the postseason ... Jose Contreras yielded two runs in 7.2 IP ... Scott Podsednik, who was held homeless during the regular season, was 2-3 with a home run and three RBI ... the Sox five homers tied a postseason record (fifth time).

Game 2: White Sox 5, Red Sox 4

Notes: The White Sox rallied from a 4-0 deficit to post a 5-4 victory ... Tadahito Iguchi's three-run homer in the fifth inning capped a five-run rally as the Sox became just the seventh team in ALDS history to overcome a deficit of four runs or more in a victory ... Iguchi joined Hideki Matsui as the only Japanese players to homer in a postseason game ... rookie Bobby Jenks became only the second pitcher since 1975 to record a save of six or more outs in his postseason debut.

Game 3: White Sox 5, Red Sox 3

Notes: Chicago completed the ALDS sweep with a 5-3 win at Fenway Park ... Paul Konerko broke a 2-2 tie with a two-run homer off Tim Wakefield in the sixth inning ... Manny Ramirez led off Boston's sixth with a solo homer, his second of the game, and the Red Sox then loaded the bases with no outs off Damaso Marie ... however, Orlando "El Duque" Hernandez (3.0 scoreless IP) worked out of the inherited jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon to end the threat ... the Sox added an insurance run in the ninth inning on a suicide squeeze bunt by Juan Unbe, and rookie Bobby Jenks pitched a 1-2-3 ninth for his second save of the series.

The White Sox eliminated the Los Angeles Angels in five games to advance to their first World Series since 1959. Mark Buehrle, Jon Garland, Freddy Garcia and Jose Contreras threw four consecutive complete-game victories to end the series, the first time that feat has been accomplished since the 1928 New York Yankees.

2005 ALCS: White Sox 4, Angels 1

Game 1: Angels 3, White Sox 2

Notes: Despite playing in three time zones in three straight nights, the Angels received a solid outing by Paul Byrd and a solo home run by Garret Anderson to take a 1-0 advantage in the ALCS ... Byrd, pitching on three days rest, allowed two runs on six hits in 6.0 IP ... Jose Contreras had his nine-game winning streak come to an end (3 ER/7.0 IP) ... Joe Crede hit his first home run of the playoffs, a solo shot in the third inning ... Neal Cotts retired both batters faced, the only appearance by a Sox reliever in the series ... the White Sox fell to 0-6 in the ALCS at home.

Game 2: White Sox 2, Angels 1

Notes: The White Sox evened the series with a 2-1 win in Game 2, recording their first-ever home victory in the ALCS (1-6) ... Joe Crede's two-out double in the ninth inning scored pinch-runner Pablo Ozuna with the winning run and gave the Sox their 16th win this season when scoring two runs or less ... Ozuna pinch ran for A.J. Pierzynski, who reached first base on a dropped third strike ... Mark Buehrle recorded a complete-game victory, limiting the Angels to one run on five hits while throwing 99 pitches (71 strikes).

Game 3: White Sox 5, Angels 2

Notes: Jon Garland pitched a four-hitter, and Paul Konerko hit a two-run homer as the White Sox beat Los Angeles, 5-2, to take a 2-1 lead in the AL championship series ... Garland, who had not pitched since 10/1, tossed Chicago's second straight complete game, following Mark Buehrle's five-hitter in Game 2 ... the White Sox scored three runs in the first inning on Jermaine Dye's run-scoring single and Paul Konerko's (3-4, HR, 3 RBI) two-run homer off John Lackey ... Chicago's first four batters combined for eight of the 11 hits ... Orlando Cabrera hit a two-run shot in the sixth, the only blemish on Garland's pitching line.

2005 ALCS: White Sox 4, Angels 1

Game 4: White Sox 8, Angels 2

Notes: Freddy Garcia nearly duplicated Mark Buehrle's five-hitter and Jon Garland's four-hitter, making the White Sox the first team to pitch three straight complete games in the postseason since the 1973 New York Mets (Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman) ... Garcia, who was pitching for the first time since clinching the ALDS, gave up two early runs while striking out five ... A.J. Pierzynski homered for the White Sox, his third of the postseason, and Joe Crede added a two-run single in the eighth off Esteban Yan ... Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game ... Chicago scored seven runs in the first inning of the series.

Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game, helping the White Sox gain a 3-1 edge in the series.

Game 5: White Sox 6, Angels 3

Notes: The White Sox advanced to their first World Series since 1959, defeating Los Angeles, 4-1, in the ALCS ... Jose Contreras tossed the fourth consecutive complete game by a Sox hurler, retiring his final 15 batters faced as he bounced back after dropping Game 1 ... the Angels led, 3-2, when Joe Crede hit a leadoff homer in the seventh off Kelvin Escobar ... after Aaron Rowand walked and A.J. Pierzynski reached first on Escobar's error in the eighth, Crede's slow roller up the middle plated Rowand with the go-ahead run ... Paul Konerko, who was named the series MVP, added a RBI double in the ninth and Rowand capped the night with a sacrifice fly ... the Sox won the sixth AL pennant in franchise history.

HISTORY

Jermaine Dye, the World Series Most Valuable Player, hit a solo home run off Roger Clemens in the first inning of Game 1.

The Sox celebrate Scott Podsednik's game-ending homer off Brad Lidge in Game 2.

2005 WORLD SERIES: SOX 4, HOUSTON 0

Game 1: White Sox 5, Astros 3

Notes: In the first World Series game held in Chicago since 1959, the White Sox scored four runs in the first four frames on their way to a 5-3 victory vs. Houston ... Jermaine Dye hit an opposite-field home run off Roger Clemens in the first inning ... the Sox added a pair of runs in the second on A.J. Pierzynski's RBI ground out and Juan Uribe's RBI double ... Lance Berkman evened the game with a two-run double in the third, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a solo home run off Wandy Rodriguez in the fourth ... Houston put runners on first and third with no outs in the eighth, but Neal Cotts (two strikeouts) and Bobby Jenks (one strikeout) combined to end the Astros threat ... Clemens left after 2.0 IP with a sore left hamstring ... Jose Contreras, the sixth Cuban pitcher to ever start a World Series game, earned the victory despite lying a Fall Classic record by hitting three batters.

Game 2: White Sox 7, Astros 6

Notes: Paul Konerko hit the 18th grand slam in World Series history, and Scott Podsednik hit a game-ending home run as the White Sox won Game 2, 7-6 ... with the Sox trailing, 4-2, in the seventh inning, Konerko homered on Chad Qualls' first pitch to put the Sox in front, 6-4 ... Houston tied the game in the ninth when pinch-hitter Jose Vizzcaino laced an opposite-field, two-run single off Bobby Jenks with two outs to set up Podsednik's heroics ... Podsednik, who went homerless in the regular season, hit a 2-1 pitch from Brad Lidge over the right-center field fence for the 14th game-ending homer in World Series history ... the game was delayed seven minutes by rain, the first in a World Series since Game 3 in 1993 at Philadelphia (1:12) ... each Sox player collected at least one hit.

2005 WORLD SERIES: SOX 4, ASTROS 0

Game 3: White Sox 7, Astros 5 (14)

Notes: For the second straight game, an unlikely hero came to the forefront for the White Sox as Geoff Blum hit a solo home run in the 14th inning to break a 5-5 tie ... Blum, who had one prior postseason at-bat, entered the longest game in World Series history in the 13th and lined a 2-0 pitch over the right-field wall to give the Sox the lead ... Chicago tacked on an insurance run on Chris Widger's bases-loaded walk ... Houston put runners on the corners in the 14th, but Sox Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle came on to retire Adam Everett on a popout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the game ... the Astros stranded 15 runners and left the winning run at third base in the ninth and at second base in the 10th and 11th ... Jon Garland allowed four runs in the first 4.0 IP but retired 12 of his last 13 batters faced ... Chicago overcame a 4-0 deficit by scoring five runs in the fifth off Roy Oswalt, highlighted by Joe Crede's solo homer and A.J. Pierzynski's two-run double that put the Sox ahead, 5-4 ... Jason Lane's double off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth tied the game at 5-5 ... the 43 players used by both teams was a World Series record, and it marked the first Series game played in Texas.

Game 4: White Sox 1, Astros 0

Notes: The White Sox captured their first World Series title since 1917 with a 1-0 victory over the Astros at Minute Maid Park ... Jermaine Dye, the eventual Series Most Valuable Player, drove in the only run with an eighth-inning single off Brad Lidge that scored Willie Harris ... Harris led off the eighth with a single, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Scott Podsednik and to third on Carl Everett's ground out ... Bobby Jenks pitched a scoreless ninth inning for the save with help from Juan Uribe, who dove into the stands down the left-field line to record the second out of the final frame before retiring Orlando Palmeiro on a grounder to end the game ... starters Brandon Backe and Freddy Garcia each tossed 7.0 scoreless IP ... the Astros were 0-11 with runners in scoring position and were held without a run in the final 15 innings of the World Series ... Chicago went 11-1 in the postseason, tied for the second-best playoff record since 1969 (minimum seven games).

Hall Of Famer Nellie Fox

In 1958, Nellie Fox struck out just 11 times in 623 at-bats (one every 56.6 at-bats), the best single-season strikeout ratio in club history. Fox holds the major-league record for most seasons leading the league in fewest strikeouts (11, 1952-62). Fox, who in 1959 became the first Sox player to win the American League Most Valuable Player Award, also holds the club mark for most consecutive games played (798). He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1997.

White Sox Winning Pitchers In The All-Star Game

Left-hander Mark Buehrle became just the sixth pitcher in White Sox history to win an All-Star Game (and first in a starting role) when he earned the decision on July 12, 2005 at Detroit's Comerica Park. Buehrle threw 2.0 scoreless IP, joining Edgar Smith (1941), Early Wynn (1958), Ray Herbert (1962), Jack McDowell (1993) and James Baldwin (2000) as Sox winners at the Midsummer Classic. He also joined Esteban Loaiza (2003), Wynn (1959) and Billy Pierce (1953, 1955-56) as the only Sox pitchers to start an All-Star Game.

TEAM OF THE CENTURY

Two-time MVP Frank Thomas led all voting as the White Sox announced the franchise's 27-player "Team of the Century" on September 30, 2000, commemorating 100 years of White Sox baseball. Thomas, who received 10,822 votes, was followed by Joe Jackson (9,293), Luke Appling (9,234), Carlton Fisk (8,866) and Nellie Fox (8,727). Al Lopez, who went 840-650 (.562) in 11 seasons as Sox manager from 1957-65 and '68-69, was selected as the All-Century Manager.

Ten of the 27 players are Hall of Famers, including the recently inducted Fisk, and six played during the Go-Go Sox era of the 1950s. More than 200,000 votes were cast on 18,500 in-stadium and online ballots during the month-long voting.

Minnie Minoso

The White Sox celebrated Minnie Minoso Day at U.S. Cellular Field on September 19, 2004, unveiling a life-sized sculpture of Minoso prior to the game vs. Detroit. The sculpture honoring the Cuban great is on the main concourse in left-center field, the first in a series to be unveiled over the next five years to honor White Sox legends. Minoso, a seven-time American League All-Star, batted .298 with 186 home runs and 1,023 RBI over his 17-year major league career, 12 with the Sox. Minoso's his uniform No. 9 was retired by the Sox in 1983. A tremendous ambassador of the game and fan favorite, he is one of two players (also Nick Altrock) to play in the major leagues over a span of five decades (1940's-1990's).

White Sox Turnaround

The White Sox 1990 record of 94-68 (after finishing 69-92 in 1989) was the largest one-year turnaround in club history, eclipsing the 1970-71 revival when the Sox improved from 56-106 to 79-83.

Largest Shutout Margin

The White Sox have recorded two 17-0 shutout victories in their history. The first came on September 19, 1925 (Game 2) at Washington and the second on July 5, 1987 at Cleveland. The most lopsided defeat in franchise history was a 19-0 loss on May 10, 2002 at Anaheim.

Quickest To 100 RBI

Frank Thomas became the fastest White Sox player to reach 100 RBI in 1994 as he topped his own mark set in 1993. Thomas recorded his 100th and 101st RBI on August 7, 1994 in the team's 110th game. In 1993, he accomplished the feat on August 18 in the club's 118th contest.

#Tied For League Lead

Homer Happy

The White Sox and Yankees (2000-current) are the only teams in major-league history to hit 200-plus home runs in seven consecutive seasons. Since 2000, the Sox rank second in the major leagues with 1,545 homers, trailing only Texas (1,558) and just ahead of the Yankees (1,542).

White Sox Score In Every Inning

In a 12-8 win vs. Boston on May 11, 1949, the White Sox scored a run in every inning. The Sox scored once in the first, second, fourth, sixth and seventh innings; twice in the third and fifth and three times in the eighth.

The Big Hurt

With a .347 average in 1997, Frank Thomas became just the second player (third time) in White Sox history to win the American League batting title. Luke Appling won batting crowns for the Sox in 1936 (.388) and 1943 (.328). At 6-foot-5 and 275 pounds, Thomas also became the largest player ever to win a batting title. Dave Parker (1978-79) and John Olerud (1993) each were listed at 6-foot-5 when they led the league in average, while Parker and Andres Galarraga (1993) each weighed 235.

Follow The Leader

The White Sox set a major-league record by holding the lead in each of their first 37 games in 2005, breaking the previous mark of 25 straight held by the 1955 Brooklyn Dodgers. The Sox 37-game streak also tied for the third-longest in major-league history, trailing only the 1998 Yankees (48) and 1932 Yankees (40).

Rookie Pitchers

Six rookie pitchers have won 15 or more games in White Sox history. Reb Russell holds the record with 21 victories in 1913. Gary Peters won 19 in 1963, Frank Smith 16 in 1904 and Tommy Thomas (1926), Tom Bradley (1971) and Britt Burns (1980) each won 15.

Four Home Runs In One Inning

The White Sox tied a club record (third time) with four home runs in one inning on August 21, 2005 vs. the Yankees. Tadahito Iguchi, Aaron Rowand and Paul Konerko hit back-to-back-to-back solo home runs off Randy Johnson to open the fourth inning before Chris Widger added a three-run blast off the Yankees southpaw. Frank Thomas, Harold Baines, Robin Ventura and Chad Kreuter were the first to accomplish the feat when they each homered in the eighth inning of a 12-1 victory vs. Milwaukee on May 26, 1996.

White Sox Factoids

- The 1960 White Sox were the first major-league team to add players names to the back of their uniforms.
- The first official American League game was played on April 24, 1901 between the White Sox and Cleveland Indians. The Sox won, 8-2, with Roy Patterson earning the victory.
- White Sox shortstop Chico Carrasquel, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, was the first Latin American player to appear in an All-Star game when he represented the American League at the 1951 game in Detroit.

Attendance Notes

The Chicago White Sox have drawn more than 2 million fans eight times during the franchise's 106 seasons in the American League, including a club-record 2.96 million in 2006. Of the White Sox Top 10 home season bests, seven have come since the team moved into U.S. Cellular Field in 1991 and eight have occurred since 1990. Of the franchise's Top 20 seasons, 19 have come since 1981. The White Sox, who first drew 1 million fans in 1951, have attracted at least 1 million fans 46 times and in each of their last 25 seasons.

At The Gate

The White Sox drew a franchise-record 2,957,411 fans in 2006 (36,511 per date), breaking the previous record of 2,934,154 set in 1991, the first year at new Comiskey Park. The Sox ranked third in the American League in attendance last season, their highest finish since 1993. They recorded a club-record 52 sellouts, including 22 in a row from July 5-August 17. The Sox drew 75 crowds of 30,000 or more in 2006 and 67 straight to end the season. Their 26.2 percent increase from 2005 ranked second in the major leagues behind Detroit (28.2), and Chicago played to 89.9 percent capacity.

White Sox Dominican Academy

The Chicago White Sox Dominican Academy is located in Moca, Dominican Republic, in the Cibao region near Santiago. Since the academy opened in December 1998, the White Sox have signed more than 50 players from the Dominican. Denny Gonzalez, a former major-league infielder with the Pittsburgh Pirates, scouts and runs the academy. Gonzalez is assisted by 20 full-time staff members who handle the accounting, groundskeeping, cooking, equipment as well as general upkeep of the complex. In addition to running camps throughout the year, the White Sox field a team in the Dominican Summer League.

Minor League Rehabilitation Facility

The Chicago White Sox and Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C. are in the fifth year of an agreement that allows the club to utilize the school's facilities to help rehabilitate major and minor league players during the summer. Catawba College, an NCAA Division II school with 1,000 students, features a newly-constructed $3.2 million athletic fieldhouse, an athletic training complex for 17 sports, a weight room, running track and indoor batting cages. Scott Takao, the White Sox minor league rehabilitation coordinator, supervises the rehab programs for injured Sox minor leaguers and those returning after surgery. White Sox major-league players also may utilize the facility during rehabilitation assignments. Three of the six Sox minor-league affiliates — Class AAA Charlotte, Class A Winston-Salem and Class A Kannapolis — are located within 75 miles of the facility.

In February 2007, White Sox catcher A.J. Pierzynski and minor-league conditioning coordinator Dale "Demon" Torborg participated in a live pay-per-view wrestling event, "Against All Odds", for TNA (Total Nonstop Action). Team Pierzynski suffered a controversial loss vs. Team Eckstein, featuring David Eckstein of the St. Louis Cardinals and wrestler Lance Hoyt. Torborg, son of former major-league manager Dale Torborg, also competed for Ted Turner's WCW (World Championship Wrestling) as the "KISS Demon" from 1997-2001. In their first pay-per-view match in December 2005, Pierzynski and Torborg were victorious over The Diamonds in the Rough.

U.S. CELLULAR FIELD

U.S. Cellular, a Chicago-based wireless service provider, the White Sox and the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority entered into a naming rights agreement in January 2003 that re-named the former Comiskey Park. Terms of the 23-year agreement, which included $68 million paid over 20 years, allowed the White Sox, ISFA and U.S. Cellular to pursue dramatic, fan-focused ballpark renovations and improvements designed to enhance the fan experience at U.S. Cellular Field.

To complement that partnership, before the 2005 season the White Sox and U.S. Cellular entered into a new marketing partnership that made U.S. Cellular the presenting sponsor of Chicago White Sox Baseball.

"U.S. Cellular has a great relationship with the White Sox that has helped tremendously to build our brand in Chicago," said U.S. Cellular president and CEO John E. Rooney. "We're proud to be involved with a baseball partner that shares our passion for serving customers, and we're extremely pleased to have a role in enhancing an already great game experience."

Continuing the celebration of the White Sox World Series Championship, in December 2005 the White Sox and U.S. Cellular embarked on the World Series Trophy Tour, a 45-city tour across Illinois and Northwest Indiana that will make at least 100 appearances at U.S. Cellular stores and other public venues, including hospitals, schools and other civic organization, and give Sox fans a chance to join in the World Championship.

Ballpark Renovations

Following is a list of ballpark upgrades and renovations made possible by the naming rights partnership between the White Sox and U.S. Cellular:

2001

- Nearly 2,000 seats added along the foul lines in front of existing seating
- Bullpens relocated to allow fans to see pitchers warming up; former bullpens filled with new seats
- Two-tiered terrace seating area added outside Bulpen Sports Bar
- Outfield seating area extended to the fence
- Outfield dimensions changed to 330 (LF), 377 (LCF), 400 (CF), 372 (RCF) and 335 feet (RF)

2002

- Vertical screen installed behind home plate
- Multi-tiered batter's eye built in center field
- Main concourse upgraded with brick façade, stainless steel counter tops and decorative lighting
- Club level concourse enclosed and carpeted with heat/air conditioning and comfortable seating areas throughout

2003

- Full-color, high-resolution 28 x 53 foot video screen added to center field scoreboard
- Two 300-foot-long, five-foot-high video LED "ribbon" boards added along the upper deck façade
- Design upgrades consistent with the lower deck finished on outfield and upper deck concourses
- Fan Deck, featuring food and beverage service in an elevated patio-like atmosphere, built on center field concourse
- Outfield steel framework and underside of canopy roof painted dark gray; concrete in seating areas and on pedestrian ramps stained gray

2004

- Eight rows and 6,600 seats removed from the top of the ballpark's upper deck
- Sloped canopy-style roof replaced by a flat roof
- Upper concourse enclosed by a translucent wall and upgraded consistent with other concourses
- Tiered seating levels added to the Fan Deck
- Outdoor balcony added to the Lower Terrace Suite

2005

- Pontiac Fundamentals skills area relocated to left field; the 16,000-square-foot skills instruction area features a youth-sized baseball diamond for coaching clinics, batting and pitching cages, batting "swing" boxes and areas for baserunning and skills instruction
- Addition of the United Scout seating area behind home plate, which offers ticket holders behind-the-scenes access to the ballpark and world-class amenities for one all-inclusive price

- Installation of new green seats to replace the ballpark's existing blue seats. The entire upper deck and Club Levels will be complete by Opening Day 2006, in addition to the bleachers. United Scout seats and some seating between the bases in the lower deck. The rest of the seats will be replaced by Opening Day 2007.
- Completion of the United Scout Seat Lounge, a full-service bar and restaurant for use by customers in the United Scout Seat area.

- Construction of a premium seating area and full-service restaurant, named the Home Plate Club, with capacity for 200, located directly behind home plate on the 200 level of the ballpark.
- Relocation of the writing portion of the press box to the 400 level of the ballpark. The new state-of-the-art facility features 32 flat-screen televisions, wireless internet access and seating for 100 working members of the media.

About U.S. Cellular

CONFERENCE & LEARNING CENTER

In November 2001, the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA) and the Chicago White Sox announced the Grand Opening of the Conference & Learning Center at U.S. Cellular Field, a state-of-the-art conference center that features the latest in communication and presentation technology housed within the ballpark.

Since its opening, the Conference & Learning Center has been the site of hundreds of conferences and seminars, while also serving as a meeting location for civic and charity functions and as the site for all White Sox press conferences and media events.

The facility, a joint partnership between ISFA and the White Sox, was designed by Campbell Tiu Campbell, Inc. and built by the joint venture of Walsh/Riteway. Audio/visual consultation and implementation was handled by Swiderski Electronics Inc.

The Conference & Learning Center offers users full-service catering by Levy Restaurants, a fully-equipped business center and on-site parking. It is available year-round for half- and full-day rentals. In addition to Chicago Public School programs, the center is available for use by local non-profit organizations, businesses and community groups. Non-profit, civic and municipal organizations can use the Conference & Learning Center for reduced or no cost.

Beyond the entertainment provided by baseball's on-the-field activities, the facility allows ISFA and the Chicago White Sox to offer students unique educational opportunities that will allow them to benefit from the experience and knowledge of the organization, its staff and its supporters.

The Conference & Learning Center features a large amphitheater-style auditorium with a seating capacity of 160, a meeting room that seats 60 and two board rooms for groups of 8 to 12. The large auditorium features individual consoles at each seat, providing direct audio and data connections, an advanced overhead document display system and computer signal inputs for projection or plasma display.

Comcast SportsNet Chicago To Carry 98 White Sox Games in 2007

The 2007 baseball season marks the third for Chicago White Sox games on Comcast SportsNet (CSN), the 24-hour regional sports network serving Chicago-area sports fans. Ninety-eight regular season White Sox games will be carried by CSN in 2007. Comcast SportsNet was launched on October 1, 2004 and currently delivers to approximately 5.1 million homes in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana and Wisconsin. The network was formed and is jointly owned by Comcast Cable and the Chicago Blackhawks (NHL), Chicago Bulls (NBA), Chicago Cubs (MLB) and White Sox.

Comcast SportsNet is located on Channel 37 on a majority of Comcast Cable systems in the Chicago DMA, producing home games for all its team partners in a high-definition format, offering fans the opportunity to experience their teams' games like never before, with the highest-quality picture and audio available. Beginning in spring 2005, Comcast SportsNet has been displayed in an enhanced-digital widescreen format, all day, all night.

Featuring over 250 regular-season games for the White Sox, Cubs, Bulls and Blackhawks, Comcast SportsNet also provides pre/post-game coverage and the most comprehensive local and regional sports news available through its daily productions of "SportsNite," and "SportsRise," and "SportsDay," the Chicago area's most comprehensive local sports news reports.

Also, Comcast SportsNet delivers its viewers the hottest sports discussion show in town with "Chicago Tribune Live," a one-hour program featuring rotating writers from the Chicago Tribune, along with special guests from the local media, national media and entertainment industry, to discuss the day's most pressing sports stories.

In 2007, Comcast SportsNet will televise 10 Sox spring training games after carrying 18 in 2006 and 20 in 2005, the most Major League Baseball contests ever televised from spring training. Media inquiries about Comcast SportsNet programming and telecasts should be directed to Jeff Nuich, Director of Communications, at 312-222-6018.

Baseball Terminology

Disabled Lists

There are two disabled lists — the 15-day DL and the 60-day DL. Players on the 60-day DL do not count against a club's 40-man roster limit. Players may be placed on either disabled list starting with the day following the last day on which they appeared in a game and may be placed on the DL retroactively, up to a maximum of 10 days. While on the DL, players may be assigned to a minor league club for the purposes of an injury rehabilitation assignment for a maximum of 20 days (30 days for pitchers).

Options

When a player is on a club's 40-man roster and assigned to the minor leagues (except for while on an injury rehabilitation assignment), a player is on "optional assignment." In most cases, a player has three options, which means the player can be on optional assignment during three different seasons (under certain limited circumstances, some players may be eligible for a fourth option). Regardless of how many times a player is optioned and recalled during a single season, the player is only charged with one option during that season — that is, there is no limit on how many times a player may be optioned during a given option year. Once all of a player's options have been used, the player must clear irrevocable waivers before being sent to the minors at any subsequent point in their career.

Waivers

Fundamentally, waivers are permission from the other major league clubs for a requesting club to make a specific roster move. The type of waiver requested by a club depends upon the type of move the club wishes to undertake.

Major League Waivers (Revocable): Required any time (i) a club wishes to option a player for whom at least three years has passed since that player made his major league debut or (ii) a club wishes to assign a player to another major league club following the July 31st non-waiver trade deadline. Major league waivers are "revocable" which means if another club enters a claim on a Player, the requesting club may either (i) revoke the request and not make the contemplated roster move or (ii) allow the claiming club to receive the player in exchange for the waiver claim fee (either $20,000 or $25,000 depending upon the Player).

Unconditional Release Waivers (Irrevocable): Required any time a club wishes to release a player from his contract. The affected player is removed from the 40-man roster at the time of the request and may be claimed by any club willing to assume the player's contract for a $1.00 waiver claim fee. Unconditional release waivers are "irrevocable" which means should another club claim the player, the club who requested the waivers loses the player to the claiming club. If the player is unclaimed, the player becomes a free agent eligible to sign with any other club and the requesting club owes the player termination pay as mandated by the terms of the player's contract and/or the collective bargaining agreement.

Special Waivers or Outright Waivers (Irrevocable): Required any time a club wishes to (i) assign a player to the minors who is out of options or (ii) remove a player from their 40-man roster. These waivers are "irrevocable" which means should another club claim the player, the club who requested the waiver loses the player to the claiming club. If the player is unclaimed, the requesting club may "outright" the affected player to the minors which removes the player from the club's 40-man roster and assigns the player's contract to a minor league affiliate. Under certain limited circumstances, a player who has been outrighted may declare free agency in lieu of accepting assignment to the minor league club.

Designated For Assignment

When the active roster limit and/or the 40-man roster limit of a particular club have been reached, and the club wishes to add an additional player to either the active or the 40-man roster, the club may designate for assignment a player currently on the 40-man roster. The club then has 10 days to either trade, outright to the minors or release the designated player. Once designated, the player no longer counts against the club's active or 40-man roster limits.

Recalled vs. Contract Purchased From Minor Leagues

If a player is on the 40-man roster, he is recalled. If not, then his contract is purchased from the minor-league team. A player must be added to the 40-man roster when his contract is purchased.

Rule 5 Draft

A player not on the major-league 40-man roster is eligible for the Rule 5 Draft if:

1. The player was 18 or younger when he first signed a pro contract and this is the fifth Rule 5 Draft since he signed.
2. He was 19 or older when he first signed a pro contract and this is the fourth Rule 5 Draft since he signed.

How To Figure

Batting Average

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits (H/AB).

Earned Run Average

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched (ER*9/IP).

Slugging Percentage

Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at-bat. At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or times awarded first base because of interference of obstruction (TB/AB).

On-Base Percentage

Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies (H+BB+HBP/AB+BB+HBP+SF).

Fielding Percentage

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors; PO+A/PO+A+E).

Magic Number

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Items Of Interest

Roster Limits

A team may have 40 players on its roster until Opening Day, when the number of active players must be reduced to 24 or 25 (not including disabled players) until September 1, at which time the roster again increases to the maximum of 40.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak

A consecutive game hitting streak shall not end if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit by pitch, defensive interference of a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall end if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Major League Service

A full year of service in the major leagues constitutes 172 days.

Day/Night Game

Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Rookie Qualifications

A player shall be considered a rookie, if:

1. He has less than 130 at-bats or 50.0 innings pitched in the major leagues during a previous season or seasons, and
2. He has not accumulated more than 45 days on a major league roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in the military or on the disabled list).

Save Rule

A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets the following three conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a. he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - b. he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
 - c. he pitches effectively for at least three innings

Batting Championship Qualifications

To qualify a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances (3.1 for each of the 162 scheduled games). If however, there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then the player shall be awarded the batting championship.

ERA Championship Qualifications

To qualify a pitcher must have at least 162.0 innings pitched and have the lowest ERA.

Medical Glossary

AC Joint — Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) — A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anti-Inflammatory — Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arthrogram — X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscopy — A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Bone Scan — An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Cartilage — Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together.

CAT Scan — Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Concussion — Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion — An injury to muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Debridement — Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

Disc — A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fibering which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion for the spinal column.

Fracture — Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gadolinium MRI — The chemical gadolinium is injected into the joint being studied so as to enhance the diagnosis of the structure under investigation.

Glenoid — Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Groin — Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hematoma — Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hyperextension — Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Impingement Syndrome — Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and generally involves supraspinatus overuse.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidale) — The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edge or lip-like structure.

Ligament — Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone, or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) — Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) — Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscus — Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) — A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Rotator Cuff — Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome — A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1) tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff 2) fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation 3) a partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm and 4) a complete tear of 1 cm or more.

Sprain — Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Strain — Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture — A hairline-type break in a bone caused by overuse.

Tendon — Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Ulnar Nerve — Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound — An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

MEDIA SERVICES

The Chicago White Sox Media Relations staff would like to welcome you to another exciting season of White Sox baseball at U.S. Cellular Field. The following are media guidelines for the 2007 season. Please feel free to contact any member of the Media Relations Department with requests, questions or concerns at any point. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2007 season.

Credentials: Proper credentials must be displayed at all times. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies that have contacted the Media Relations department at least 24 hours in advance. Media Will Call is located at Gate 4, Window 10, which opens two hours prior to game time. Earlier credential pick up should be arranged with Vivian Stalling in advance.

Please note: Transfer of working press credentials or autograph requests by working media will result in termination of privileges for the individuals involved.

Full-Season Credentials: Full-season credentials for all White Sox games at U.S. Cellular Field are available to all accredited daily newspaper, area radio and television reporters who cover the Sox on a regular basis. All requests should be submitted in writing or via fax to: Bob Beghtol, Director of Media Relations, Chicago White Sox, 333 W. 35th Street, Chicago, IL 60616, Fax: 312-674-5116

All full-season credentials require a photo. When approved, media may stop by U.S. Cellular Field to have photo taken. Full-season credentials will not be issued without photo I.D.

Daily Credentials: All other media outlets will be credentialed on a per-game basis. A letter from an editor, sports director or assignment editor on letterhead is required at least 24 hours in advance. All letters may be faxed to the above number.

Photo Requests: Requests for photos from accredited newsgathering agencies or other baseball clubs should be sent via email to the attention of Ron Vesely in the Media Relations department at rvesely@chisox.com. Verification of accreditation may be required.

Admission: Enter U.S. Cellular Field at Gate 4 (Administrative Offices). Television crews that park in the back of the ballpark enter through the loading dock. A Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or Chicago White Sox credential is necessary for admittance. All bags entering U.S. Cellular Field will be searched. We appreciate your cooperation and apologize in advance for any inconvenience.

Please note: Media may be asked to show a photo ID prior to entering the park and will not be granted access to the ballpark until four hours prior to first pitch.

Broadcast Booths: Take the elevator to Level 2, proceed to the Home Plate Club (formerly the press box), and take the stairs to the broadcast booths. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Reserved), Booth 2 (Home TV), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Home Radio), Booth 5 (Visiting Radio), Booth 6 (Reserved), Booth 7 (Reserved).

Clubhouses: Credentials must indicate clubhouse access. Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the White Sox clubhouse (third base side) is to the left and the visitors' clubhouse (first base side) is to the right. The clubhouses will be opened to the media 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. The clubhouses will be closed to the media 45 minutes prior to the game and between games of a doubleheader. Following the game, the White Sox clubhouse will be opened to the media no later than 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room, and players' lounge are closed to the media at all times.

Dark Rooms: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the dark rooms are to the right beyond the entrance to the Umpires' Clubhouse.

Elevators: Two elevators are located to the right after entering Gate 4. Proper credentials are necessary for access to the elevators. Take either elevator to Level 4 for the Press Box, Level 3 for the Bards Room (dining room) or Level 5 for the Upper Photo Boxes (Sections 524 and 540).

Field: Credentials must indicate field access. The field and dugouts must be cleared following pre-game batting practice and infield drills. Postgame live shots can be done from the warning track areas immediately in front of the first and third base photo boxes. However, postgame interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.

Game Tickets: Limited complimentary tickets are available to the media on a first come-first served basis. Media may request up to four tickets for a game by faxing a written request to the Media Relations department at least 24 hours in advance. If complimentary tickets for a given game are unavailable, we can help you purchase tickets with a credit card. Tickets may be picked up at Gate 4, Window 10.

Interview Procedures: Please contact the Chicago White Sox Media Relations department to schedule any interviews requiring special arrangements or special requests. Any media requesting a specific interview with a member of the front office staff should do so through a member of the White Sox Media Relations department.

Media Dining: Meals are served in the Bard's Room on all home game days. Bard's Room privileges are available only to those media with BBWAA cards, White Sox Full Season passes or daily credentials. Meals are served from two hours prior to all home games until game time. There will be a $7.00 charge for all meals. Selected food from Levy Restaurants will be available in the Press Box from first pitch until two hours into the game.

Media Guides: Media Guides are available in the Press Box and may be obtained from a White Sox Media Relations representative.

Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in Lots C and G, as designated on the parking pass. Daily parking is available by contacting Vivian Stalling in the Media Relations department before 12:00 p.m. on weekdays and before 2:00 p.m. on Friday for the weekend.

Photo Areas: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the third base photo box is to the left and the first base photo box is to the right. Upper photo boxes are available near Sections 524 and 540. Still photographers are not allowed in the tunnel behind home plate or in the clubhouses, without special permission.

Postgame Interview Room: Approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game, manager Ozzie Guillen and selected players (when possible) are available in the postgame interview room. Guillen also provides answers in Spanish when requested. The Interview Room is located across the service tunnel from the visiting clubhouse. Interviews are broadcast into the press box and a multibox is available for TV/radio use. The Postgame Interview Room feed is available to media not on site through Norlight Teleport Chicago (call Dave Pritchard at 847-674-7476). Asian media may obtain feeds through Broadcast Resources Inc. at www.broadcastresources.com.

Press Box: Take the elevator to Level 4. The Press Box contains 100 seats, individual storage bins, telephones for credit card or 800 calls and a lounge area. No food or drink may be taken from the Press Box.

Game-Related Materials: All media materials are available prior to each home game outside the Media Relations office and in the press box. Boxscores, play-by-play reports and postgame notes/quotes are available in the Press Box after the game.

Television Minicam Crews: WBBM (2), WMAQ (5), WLS (7), WGN (9), WFLD (32), CLTV and Comcast SportsNet will be allowed to park two vehicles each at the rear of the ballpark near the Players' Lot (corner of 35th Street and Wentworth Avenue). Crews parking in this area enter the stadium with their equipment via the loading dock. Please note: security personnel may search vehicles and request identification from camera and truck crews. Access to the field is via the first and third base photo boxes off the service tunnel. Access to photo boxes on the upper concourse is via the freight elevator in the left field corner of the stadium.

Pregame interviews must be done on the field. Per Major League Baseball guidelines, no game action may be shown during a live shot. Use of lights in the stadium during the game is prohibited. Proper credentials are necessary for access to the clubhouses. Following the game, interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the final out.

Roving through the stands and concourses is prohibited without prior arrangements with the White Sox. Likewise, field level access during the game is limited to the first and third base photo boxes.
